LONGHORN

THE 1968 LONGHORN

Hyannis High School

Hyannis, Nebraska

Hyannis High School has seen yet another year pass.
A year of victories and defeats. A year of plays and concerts. A year of music clinics and speech contests. A year of track meets and broken records.
A year of many memories ...

Editors' Message

We, the editors of the 1968 Longhorn, sincerely hope that you will look to this playback of memories often, and that it will stimulate your own memories as well.

We would like to give thanks to Mr. Worley and Mr. Hale for providing the pictures for this yearbook. Special thanks is deserving of Larry Burgess and Kay Heigh for their artistic efforts. Last but not least, we would like to thank Mrs. Hale for being such a devoted sponsor.

Ronda Perrin Billy D. Rothwell

In Memoriam

Gone forever the kind old children's doctor ... benefactor of our community--he is now in the past.

Some 50 years as our doctor, and more than 30 years as school board member, he served our "take-it-for-granted" people well.

Horse-and-buggy man, Never-again man, Last-of-a-kind man - we pay him tribute. Dr. William L. Howell, our last-of-a-kind man, is gone forever. With this we dedicate the 1968 Longhorn in memory of Dr. William L. Howell.

Remember standing out front in the morning ... at noon, waiting?

Memories ... the link; the golden key to the past. Enduring the storms of years.

Memories are everywhere ... everyday we make new ones. Friendships, classes, laughter, songs or tears all of these and more.

Friends may move afar ... yet they are near.

Laughter may dim ... yet it lingers.

Memories

This yearbook will become yellowed, tattered and torn, but memories are fresh as spring ... as perfect as a new-born baby.

Memories are yesterday, today.
... the spice of life.
... the unknown known.

A memory contains no hydrogen formula, no  $x + x$ , no periods or commas --yet these processes are memories.

Memories seem filled with feelings of affection ... the lovely song of the robin ... the gentle murmuring of the snowflakes against the window.

Memories are what we turn back to when we are sentimental ... or sad ... or homesick at college.

Sometimes they are good, the defeats of bitter rivals on the field, or the bad, which do not need mentioning.

Memories ... life; past and present, eeking on into the future ... never stopping until ...

Memories are for the young ... the old; student and teacher.

Memories are the gala party ... the Henchmen ... growing up, the pains, the joys.

... the class discussions--both heated and cool.

Memories are working on a play, perfection ... lights ... applause.

... or the noise and friendliness of the early morning halls ... the quietness of afternoon, versus the thunder of a pep rally ... the desire ... the win under the hot sun--the brisk wind.

Memories of going far and near for a game ... hoarseness, then home.

Memories are sneaking gum or sunflower seeds. A bad memory? Not unless you got caught.

Memories are small, compact classes ... quiet, homey, comfortable. The harmony--peaceful co-existence.

Memories of freshman initiation; it may have been a little provoking to some, but it was enjoyed and it was a first memory for the freshmen.

... the wait to go in, to hear the coach or his assistant call your number, to know you'll help in either a defeat or a victory for your team.

Memories are cheering for a team, a school; our own base of loyalty ... working together in one unit for a win ... our cheerleaders.

... working together to honor a group of boys and their parents; it's their night, their spotlight.

Memories of a speaker, a leader, commenting, advocating, his chapter's purposes and aims.

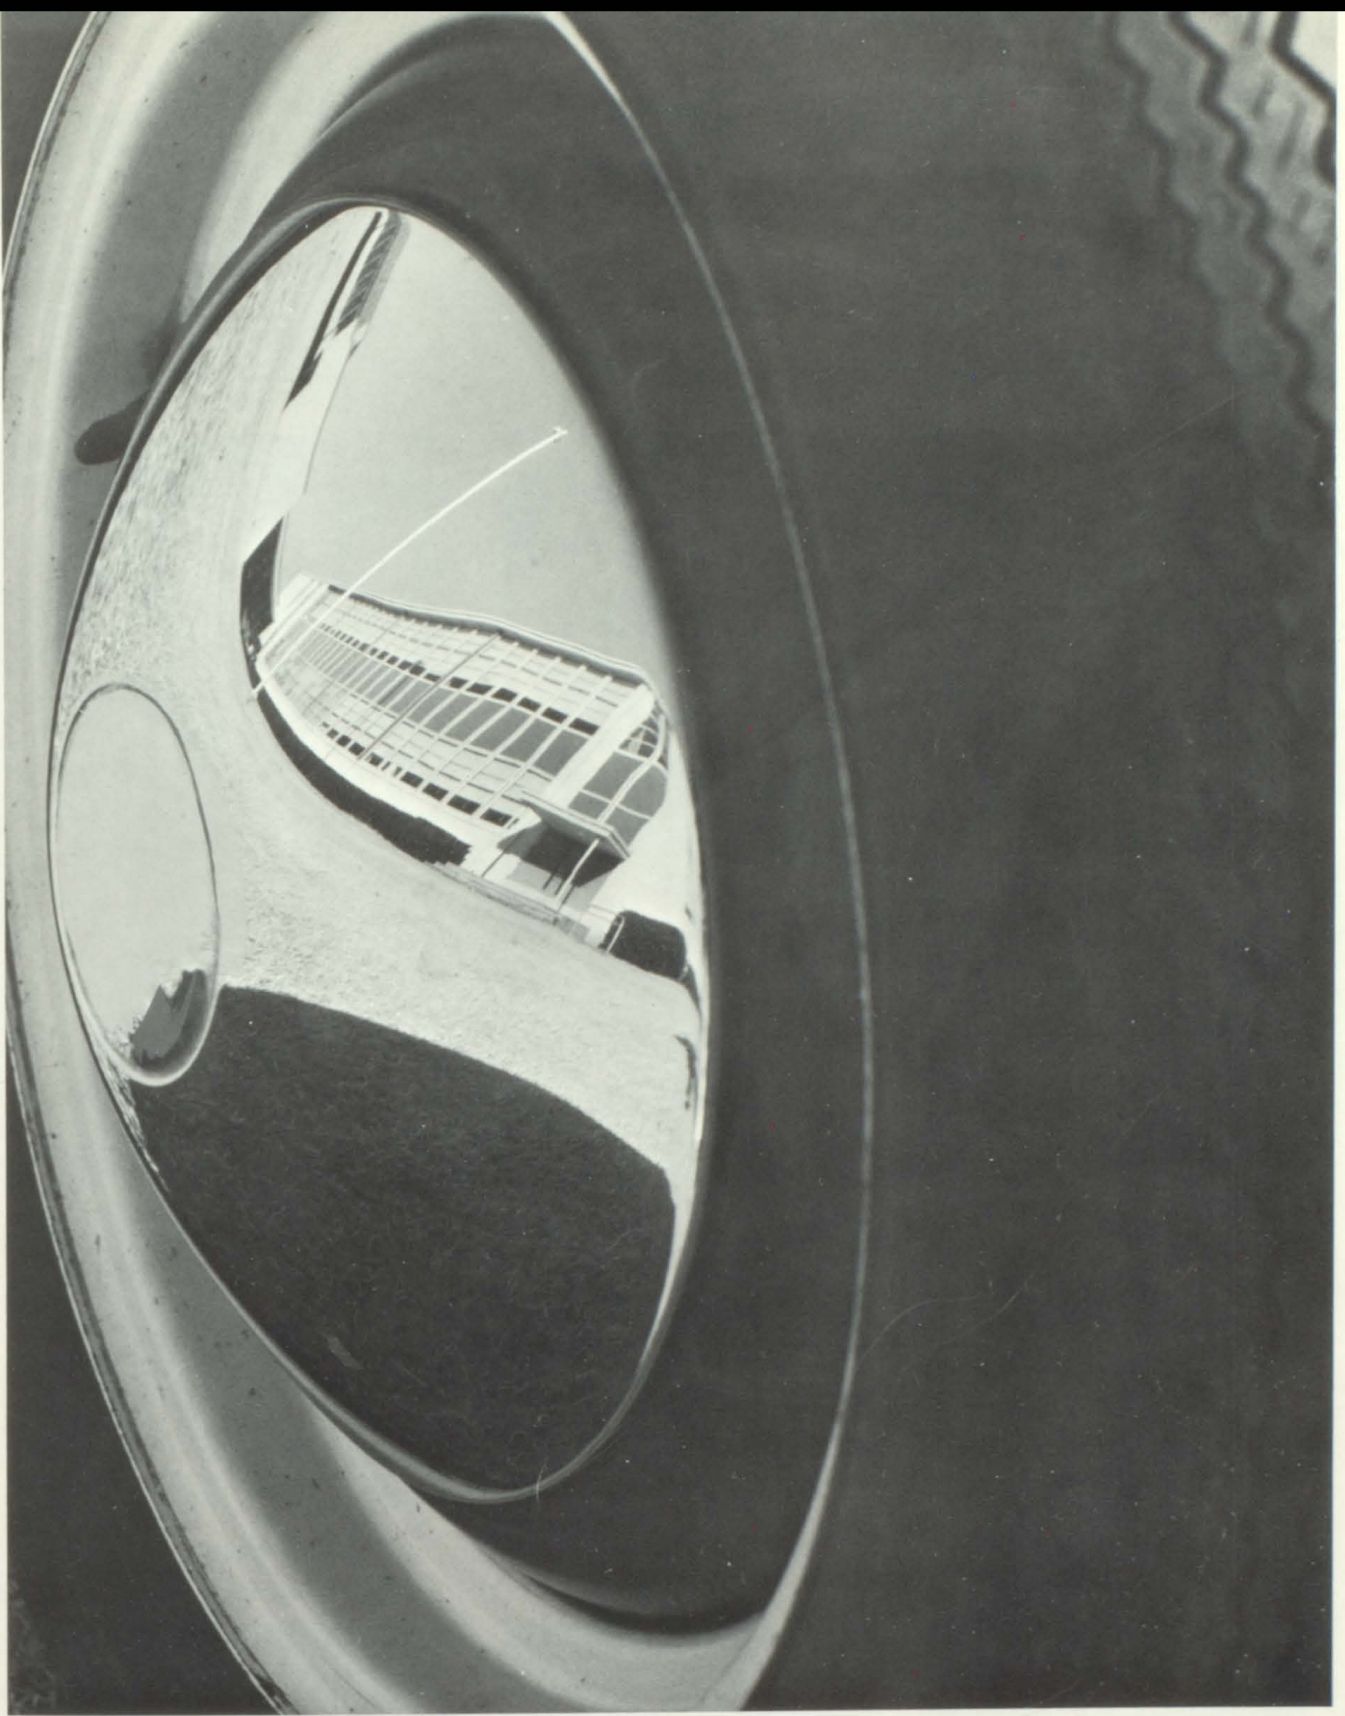

The year ended with the Seniors graduating. The best and yet the saddest memory for them.

As we go on we can always look back to the pride on their faces, the pride in ourselves, our school, our teams, our work.

Now, it is but a memory.

We offer our appreciation of Red and Jeanne's efforts in making this school year a memorable one.

We will always remember Jeanne's patience in getting us scissors, glue, keys and the other miscellaneous memorabilia we asked for.

Red was indispensable. He was always there to fix our lockers when we had slammed them too hard ... his patience with us is deeply appreciated.

You are a part of our memories!

Senior Memories

Commencement Week was filled with special memories for the graduating class. Baccalaureate services for the Class of '68 were held on May 12 in the Community Building. The solemn occasion was enhanced by the decorations created by the Sophomore Class. The speaker for the evening was the Reverend Alex Wacker of Alliance.

At right, Vicki Dyer and Leonard Adam, salutatorian and valedictorian, reflect upon the future. They hold trophies indicating their honors.

After the Commencement exercises were completed, the mothers of the seniors gave a reception in honor of the class. It provided everyone with an opportunity to congratulate each senior. Emotions were strong, and tears were mixed with smiles.

Juniors

The Junior Class consisted of sixteen students who elected Jean Prindle as their president and Miss Dunn and Mr. Naylor as their sponsors.

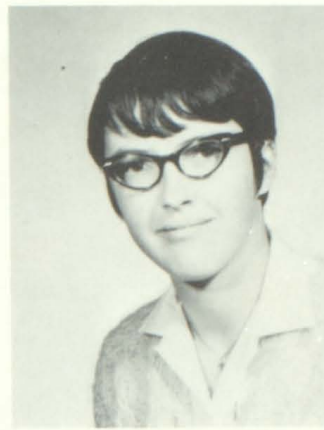

The highlight of the year for the juniors was giving the prom and banquet for the seniors. A lot of hard work and long hours went into their colorful decorations.

Life has a serious side, even for juniors. At left, four of them devote at least part of their attention to the subject at hand, in this case Office Practice.

Sophomores

The Sophomore Class was nineteen strong. They were sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Hale and led by Debbie Schufeldt as president.

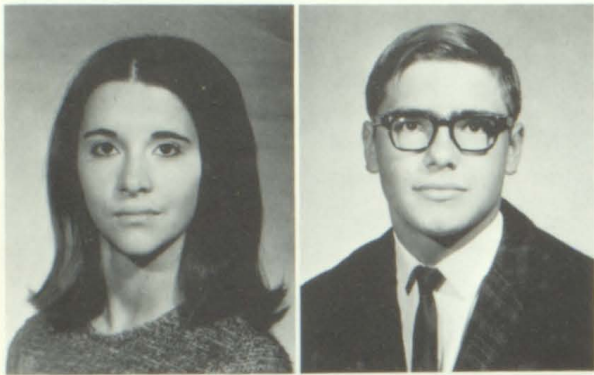

They held a bake sale, which was a successful money-making project. The most memorable sophomore event was the Leap Year Party. It gave girls the opportunity to ask boys, and everyone commented on the "great time" they had.

The sophomores ended the school year by decorating for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Freshmen

The 67-68 Freshman Class was composed of nineteen members. There were eight girls and eleven boys under the leadership of their class President, Ronn Carr and their sponsor, Mr. Ellis.

Starting off the year, the class withstood initiation.

They then went on to a successful money making project in a Hockey Tournament.

Their activities were culminated with a roller skating party.

The Jr. High Short-horn Pep Club was led by three very able cheerleaders. Throughout the basketball season the group staunchly backed the boys with the help of their sponsor, Miss Groves.

Jr. High Sports

The boys that you see at the left are the future - the future HHS Basketball team. This year they played several games with other schools in this area, and they came up each time showing lots of fire and hustle. Mr. Tapley, the coach, is pictured in front of the team. They are L to R: Bobby Monahan, David Burgess, Bernard Harry Adam, Ted Ferguson, Dean Edelman, Rick Peters, James Wheelock, Jim Wright, Kidd McKillip.

Like the boys, the Jr. High Volleyball team also represents the future. They had a very successful season this year - both in desire and winning. Mr. Sherman, the coach, deserves a lot of credit for their success. The team members are L to R: Dixie Moran, Cheryl Hebbert, Ardith Davis, Pat Buckner, Lori Wakely, Lillian Blood, Connie Mackintosh, Cindy Tyree, Pam Murray, Joyce Garwood, Kim Brennemann, Sandy Merrihew, Polly Rothwell, Connie Anderson.

As the Pep Club is organized as a girls' club each year, HHS boys form the H-Club. It consists of athletically inclined boys who have lettered in a sport. This year eight boys belonged to this honored group. Under the able leadership of Mr. Osborne, Sponsor, and Harry Younkin, President, the club accomplished many things, including helping the Pep Club sponsor the Athletic Banquet.

FFA

"Successful" is a word that best describes the group of boys in the Hyannis FFA Chapter. This year they competed in many judging and speaking contests where they placed high. The sponsor, Mr. Tapley, deserves a pat on the back for his help in making the group what it was.

At the beginning of this school year, the Hyannis High School Student Council held its organizational meeting. At that meeting it was decided by its twelve members that it would strive to contribute to the smoothing of student-administration affairs. The '68 Council with the help of its sponsor, Mr. Sherman, performed a series of duties to improve the school. Among these were: sponsoring a safety week, establishing school rules concerning parking lot provisions, and in general making a closer relationship between the student body and the administrative staff.

ACTIVITIES

B a n d

The Hyannis High School marching band consisting of forty members accomplished much during this year. They played for pep rallies and football games. The highlight of the year was a trip to Lincoln via chartered bus to participate in the University of Nebraska Band Day performance. The band mothers helped in financing this trip. Pop bottles were sold, and a sloppy-joe sale was held.

Debbie Schufeldt served as drum major-ette, and Mr. Naylor was director.

Band Day

Dance Band

The Dance Band was composed of students who enjoy playing popular music. They participated in the Winter Concert, played at the Thedford Band Clinic and several pep rallies. It has proved to be an interesting combination of band instrumentation that has improved its members' intonation and techniques.

Concert Band

Four years ago the concert band was organized under the able direction of Mr. Naylor. Even though it was a trying time, they worked energetically, and this year they have shown remarkable musicianship.

Mixed

The Hyannis Senior High Mixed Chorus was under the direction of Mr. Gary Naylor. The members of the organization participated in and backed the musical production, "Oliver!".

Boys' Quartet

The Boys' Quartet was composed of four diligent, talented senior boys. They were, L to R: Billy Rothwell, Benjy Simpson, Dave Viall, and Rick Rothwell. Under the direction of Mr. Gary Naylor, they participated in concerts and provided entertainment for social occasions. They received a superior rating at District Music Contest.

Chorus

They also performed at several concerts. The group traveled to Thedford for the Sandhills Music Clinic and to Chadron for District Music Contest.

Longhornairs

Homecoming

The Homecoming game was played against Brule, with the Longhorns victorious which helped add to the mood of the festive occasion.

Vicki Dyer was revealed Homecoming Queen for 1968 during the halftime ceremonies. Her attendants were Becky Blaylock and Darlene Daly.

Harry Younkin was crowned King. His attendants were Benjy Simpson and Dave Hebbert.

Hyannis Music Department

Presents

LIONEL BART'S

The play begins with the hungry orphan boys (upper left corner) yelling: "We want Gruel." The boys are fed, but thin Oliver asks for more. Mr. Bumble and the Widow Corney punish him by selling him to Mr. and Mrs. Sowerberry, the undertakers.

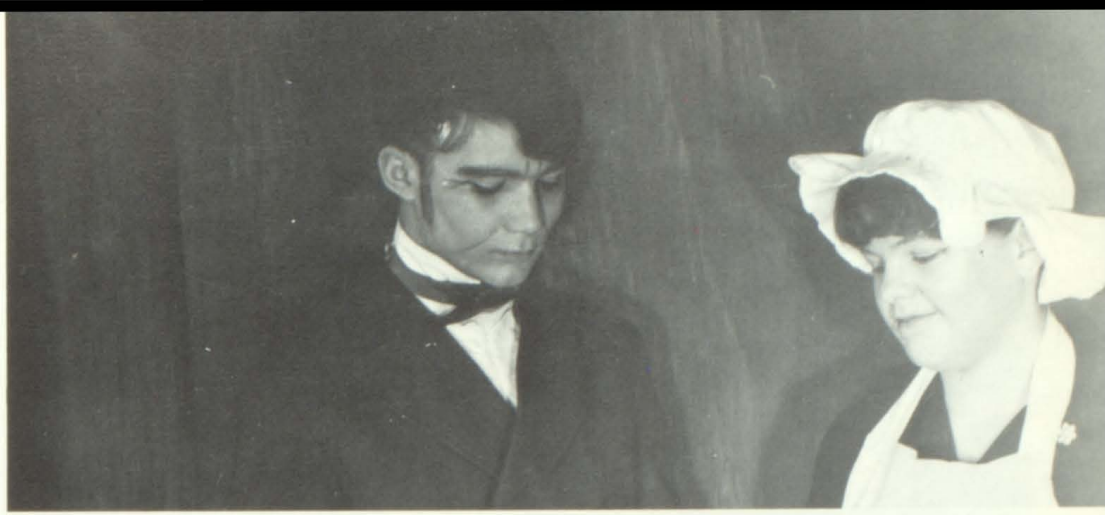

But Oliver soon finds he is in worse hands and runs away, only to fall into the hands of Fagin's Boys. They are led, of course, by Fagin along with his cohorts: Bill Sykes, Nancy, and the Artful Dodger. They quickly teach him the art of pickpocketing.

Oliver!

Produced through arrangement with Tams-Whitmark, Inc., N. Y. C.

Oliver is soon caught by the rich Mr. Brownlow, who takes him to his house, where he is cleaned up by Mrs. Brownlow. But soon after Oliver is sent on an errand and falls back into Fagin's clutches.

By this time Nancy feels guilty for her part in teaching Oliver his bad ways. She fights with Sykes and escapes with Oliver.

Mr. Brownlow has discovered that Oliver is his grandson, and he strives to get him back. Nancy returns him just before Sykes kills her.

The Hyannis High School Chorus backed the main cast during the play. Much credit also goes to Darlene Daly and Jean Prindle, who worked behind stage. Not to be forgotten are Mr. Naylor and Sharlene Haney who played the piano and organ.

The meal, which consisted of roast beef, was prepared by the Hyannis Legion Auxiliary. In the picture at the left, athletes, and some who are not, are shown getting ready to eat.

Athletic Banquet

The program began with the Welcome and Response given by Darlene Daly and Harry Younkin respectively. Next, letters were given for the various sports: Football, Basketball, Volleyball and Track. Miss Dunn, Master of Ceremonies, became the main coordinator of the evening as she introduced each part of the program.

The entertainment for the evening began with the Senior Boys' Quartet singing: "This Train." The Freshman Boys' Quartet also sang: "Jolly Roger."

The highlight of the night was the dubbing of the 1969 cheerleaders. Pictured below are the old and new together.

March of Dimes Royalty

Billy Rothwell and Becky Blaylock reigned over the March of Dimes Dance, a benefit for that charity. Attendants were Darlene Daly, Toni Hebbert, Dave Hebbert, and Alan Rice.

Girl and Boy Staters

Chosen to represent HHS at Cornhusker Girls' and Boys' State were Ruth Boots and Jerry Merrihew. Alternate representatives were Sandra Blakey and Alan Rice. The annual summer event is sponsored by the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Juniors, Seniors, their dates, and faculty members attended the Banquet held in the Kings Daughters' Room at the United Church or Christ. The theme revealed was "The Pledge of Love."

Entertainment for the Banquet consisted of a skit given by the Junior Class and a song, "Till There Was You," sung by four Junior girls.

A hilarious look at the Seniors' future was presented by Lola Ferguson in the class prophecy.

Junior-Senior Prom

The Prom produced lasting memories for all who attended.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the Shades of Blue.

The theme was accented by a large heart for an entry way and several large cupids were poised about the room.

Brilliant streamers of numerous colors created an exotic atmosphere throughout the evening.

Commencement Memories

The 1968 Hyannis High School Commencement was held at the Quonset on Tuesday, May 14, at 8:00 p.m. The program for the evening was started by the band as they played "Pomp and Circumstance" for the processional. Pictured in the upper left corner you see Diane Merrihew and Gary Burgess, the Ushers. They led the Seniors in.

The entertainment for the evening started with the band playing: "European Folk Tune Suite." Then, Diane Merrihew sang a vocal solo entitled: "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The Big Night

For the second year in a row, Dr. Robert Manley from Hiram Scott College was the Graduation speaker. From his speech the Seniors gained much insight into the path ahead of them. He is pictured in the upper right corner.

Miss Dunn, right, presented Harry Younkin with the 1968 Grant County Teachers' Association Scholarship. He can use this at any college in the state. Becky Blaylock was the runner-up.

Mr. Sherman, above, was the Master of Ceremonies. He introduced each part of the program.

At the right you see Becky Blaylock walking down the aisle for the recessional as the band played.

Some memories are pleasant ...

... and some are painful.

Senior Sneak Trip

Mr. Osborne, Mr. Naylor, and Mrs. Rex added sparkle to the trip.

The Senior girls share laughter.

All seniors visited the Denver Zoo.

ATHLETICS

Football

The 1967-68 Longhorn football team consisted of the following boys FIRST ROW, (L to R): Gary Burgess, Doug Moran, Doug Bestol, Billy Rothwell, Bryan Monahan, James Wilder, Frank Keller, Mark Merrihew. SECOND ROW: Coach Osborne, Dave Hebbert, Rick Rothwell, Alan Rice, Doug Brennemann, Jim Steggall, Jerry Merrihew, Lenny Simpson, Leonard Adam, Coach Ellis. THIRD ROW: Neil Merrihew, Eddie Bissell, Dennis Steggall, Dave Viall, Mike Martin, Larry Burgess, Chris Brennemann, Benjy Simpson, Harry Younkin, Art Crawford.

One of the minor wounds of the Cody game is being attended by the student managers, Neil Merrihew and Art Crawford as Bernard Adam looks on.

Quarterback Leonard Adam turns a sizzling corner, carrying the ball from the right sweep.

Coach Osborne, deep in tactical thought, sees his team struggling hard at Cody.

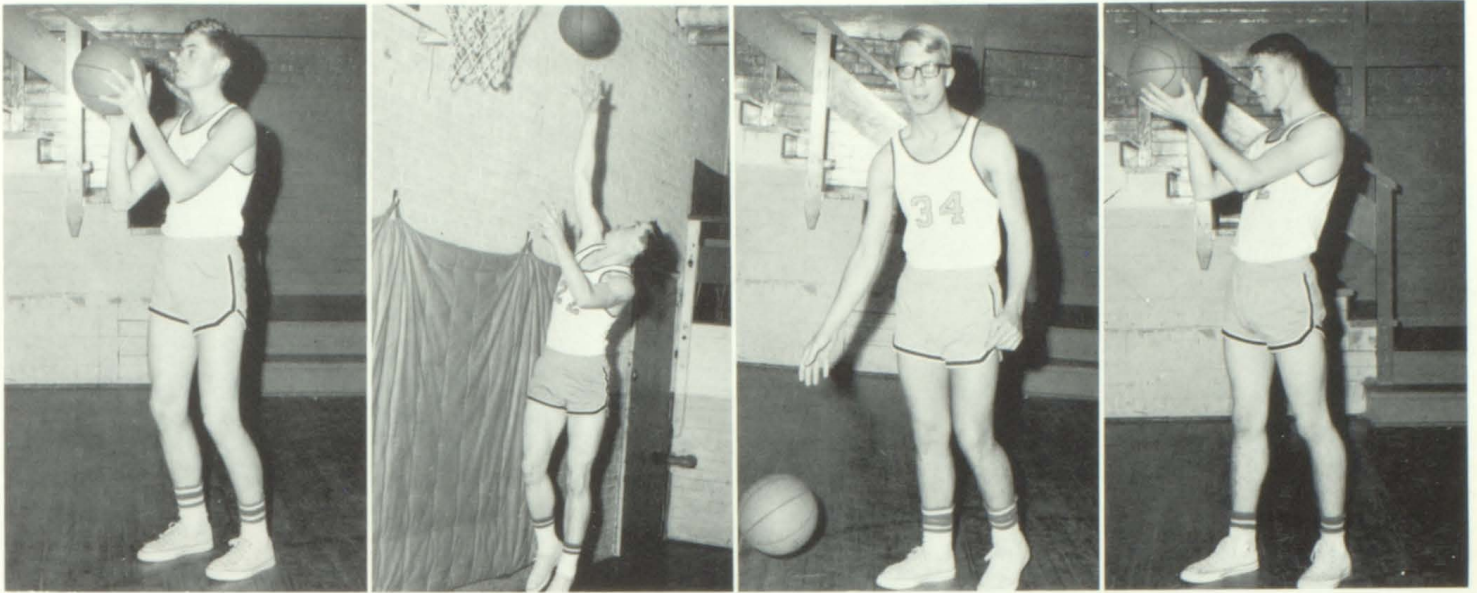

"Lack of Experience" is always a sad story, and that it was this year for the Basketball team. It was a new team, and they had to learn as they played. But even though they had bad luck during the season, they showed lots of hustle throughout the year. In desire to win the '68 Basketballers had a very successful year.

Basketball

The Senior Foursome are L to R: Dave Hebbert, Leonard Adam, Rick Rothwell, and Mike Martin.

Rick jumps high.

As Alan dribbles the ball, Rick does the two-step.

Doug shoots for a hit!

Leonard in action.

Make it, Dave!

Volleyball

The Volleyball Team, Coach Sherman, and manager Ruth Boots.

Go get it Holly!!!

Sock it to 'em, Barb.

Vicki loves the crowd.

Look at Lola hit that ball!!

Girls' Track

This year was the first in many that Hyannis High has had a successful Girls' Track Team. In fact, it was the first year that we've really had a Girls' Track Team. Ten girls went out.

Although they placed rather low in the track meets they attended, they made up for it in desire and spirit. Hyannis should be proud of the 1968 Girls' Track Team.

Boys' Track

The Hyannis Boys' Track Team and Coach Estes had a very successful season in 1968. This year was the first in quite a few that a large number of boys went out. Many records were broken by the team.

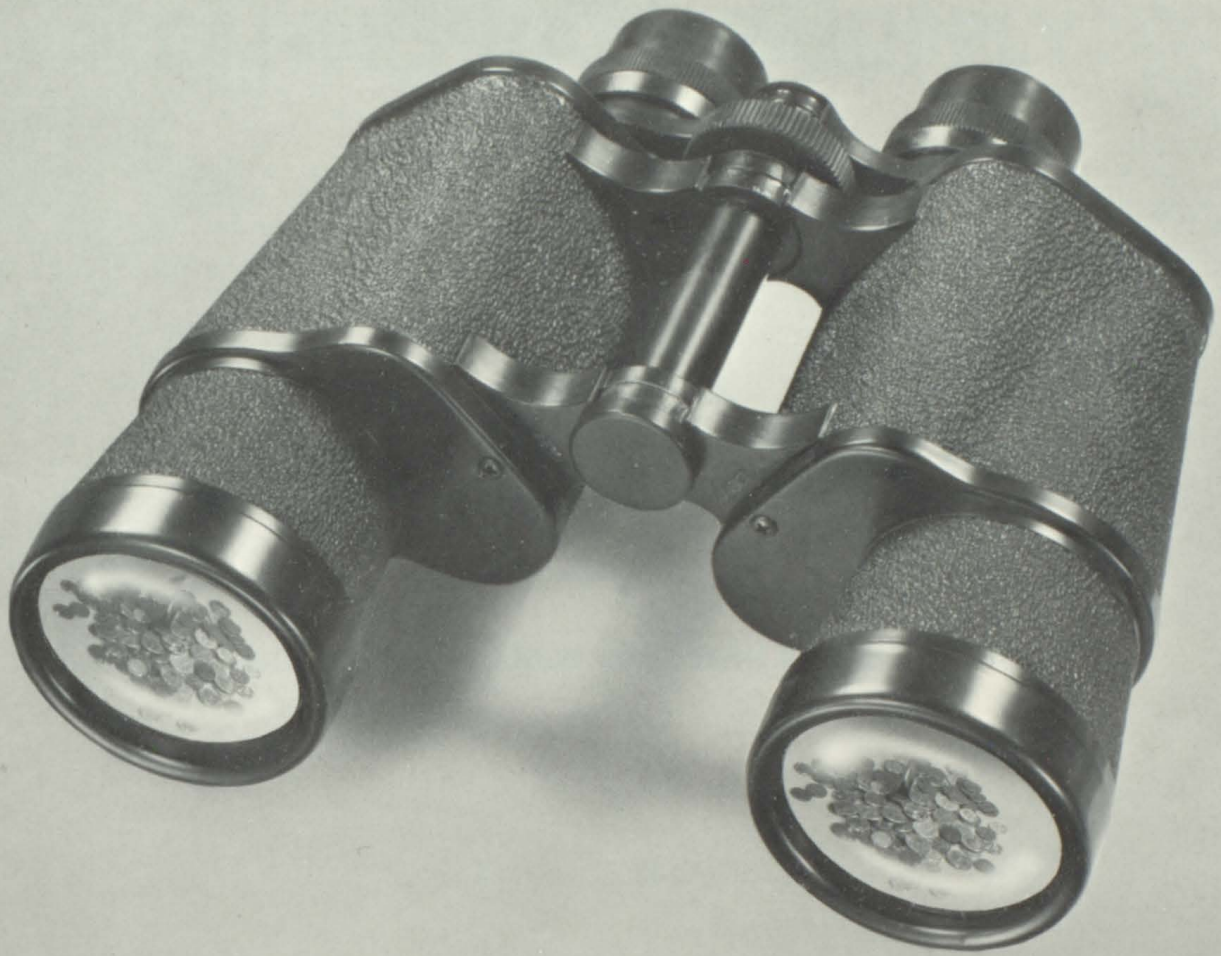

Dennis Steggall set the Hyannis record for the 2-mile at the Sandhill Track Meet. This was the first time anyone from here had run that. He broke his own record at the Western 10 where he came in third.

Among other record breakers were: Brian Monahan, Dave Viall, Harry Younkin and Benjy Simpson.
