CURRENT EVENTS

CLOSE-UP OF SATURN - An unmanned spacecraft named Voyager I sailed past Saturn, sending us photos of a previously unknown planet.

LANDSLIDE VICTORY - After 12 years of trying, Ronald Reagan harnessed a time-for-change conservatism and swept Jimmy Carter out of the White House with a surprise landslide at the polls.

Wide World Photos

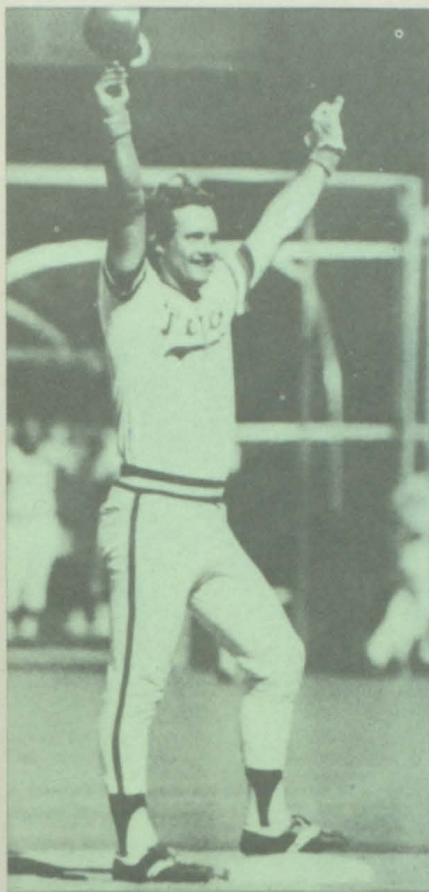

LAS VEGAS CASINO BURNS - The second worst hotel fire in U.S. history killed 84 and injured 500 at the MGM Grand Hotel. The fire alerted people to the fact old fire safety controls may not be keeping pace with fire control problems in high-rise buildings.

GOLD MEDALIST - At the Winter Olympics in New York, Eric Heiden captured five gold medals in an unprecedented sweep of the men's speed skating events.

DURANTE DIES - Jimmy Durante parlayed his big nose and sunny affability into a 60-year career spanning entertainment all the way from vaudeville to television. He was 86.

BASEBALL'S TOP HITTER - Kansas City Royals third baseman, George Brett, wrapped up the season with a phenomenal batting average just short of .400 and was voted the A.L.'s most valuable player. His team lost the World Series to the Philadelphia Phillies.

BRUSH FIRES - A wall of fire headed toward the campus of California at San Bernadino — one of several brush fires that raced through Southern California, destroying over 30,000 acres and over 100 homes.

IRAN, IRAQ DECLARE WAR - Iran became sufficiently weakened by worldwide repercussions over the seizure of the American Embassy and became a feasible target for neighboring Iraq.

BAILING-OUT CHRYSLER - President Carter shook hands with Chrysler Chairman Lee Iacocca in May after signing a $1.5 billion federal loan to keep the nation's third largest automaker afloat. When their 1981 line didn't sell as predicted, the corporation started looking for further federal generosity.

GIVE PEACE A CHANCE - The hopes of a generation were summed up in John Lennon's poetic lyrics. The former Beatle was shot and killed on the steps of his New York apartment, causing a worldwide outpouring of grief.

WHO SHOT J.R.? - Over 83 million Americans turned on their TV's one Friday night in November to find out who shot J.R. Ewing, the dastardly double-dealer of CBS' "Dallas." The episode had the highest ratings in television history.

The theme of this 1981 annual - Time Span was chosen to define and capture the special times throughout our year. There was a time for each special event or organization that we have tried to present.

I hope that within these 80 pages the Annual Staff has captured through pictures or copy some special memory for you. As the Editor, I realize just how much time and patience had to go into this annual. I am very thankful for the people who helped to produce this annual, and I hope that next year the Annual Staff will be successful in their attempts. Tena Powles, Editor

Winter! A time when it seems school is just dragging on without any excitement in sight. But as you look back through these pictures we hope you will remember what fun we made out of the small things we did. The following pictures are glimpses of a few moments in our past. Eight seniors accepted the challenge of Trigonometry class this year, and although they had to spend long hours working on difficult problems, they seemed to always find enough time to fool around. To the left of the Trig class is Tracey Becker and Wayne Morgan enjoying more than the basketball game. Below Tracey and Wayne is Sharon Lenz wondering what is really happening. To the left of Sharon is Jess Kohl concentrating on painting the Nesbitt's Orange Drink sign for the High School Musical "Wonderful Town." Next to Jess is the picture of Kathy Connealy and Nancy Zickefoose deeply involved in a basketball game against Sandhills. The picture to the left shows left to right Paul Vinton, Pete Vinton, Steve Westover, and Greg Frye charging down the court in step while the referee looks on.

All the pictures on this page help to capture the memories of the fall of 1980 at Hyannis High School. The football season made Friday night a special event; Kathy and Bryan were crowned Homecoming Queen and King. The freshman found that opening those lockers could be pretty tough. Also, the volleyball games were a big highlight. As shown in the far right and the bottom pictures the crowds that came to watch were an interesting variety.

Pictured left were the good and faithful cooks for this school year. From l. to r.: Ruby Bishop, Bev Ellis, and Marjorie Rice. It is easy to take these people for granted, but they actually are a vital and appreciated group at Hyannis High School.

Sally Carr was busy all year keeping books and records accurate.

All of the staff worked hard for the students, faculty, and administration. Some people might say that it is their job. However, they deserve a great deal of credit for all they do!

faculty

The Hyannis teachers had many activities and patient trying moments throughout the school year.

The coaches were quite busy this year. The coaches for the Jr. High and High School were Mrs. Brown, Miss Faden, Miss McIntosh, Mr. Rasmussen, Mr. Seidl, Mr. Phelps, Mr. Lentz, and Mr. Dyer. They all helped in making the athletics of Hyannis High School a success.

Besides coaching, classes were taught. The math and science classes were taught by Mr. Ellis, Mr. Fisher, Miss McIntosh, Mr. Dyer, Mr. Seidl, and Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Seidl and Miss McIntosh were both in charge of the health and physical education classes.

The music department was under the direction of Mr. Naylor. He had a lot of responsibility with all of the drama, music, and band.

The English classes were taught by two principle teachers Mr. Crabill and Mrs. Garner. Mr. Crabill especially enjoyed senior English class.

The social studies department was under the supervision of Mr. Rasmussen, Mr. Storms, and Mr. Lentz.

Our vocational education this year came from the teaching of Miss Faden, Mr. Miller, Mr. Frost, and Mr. Phelps.

Miss Geiser was the art teacher for the year. She took the responsibility for all of these classes.

Mrs. DeLisle was the librarian. Another big responsibility she has was working with the Annual Staff to produce this annual.

All the faculty worked efficiently together to try to achieve very quality education. In all, they did a good job of making this a fine year.

Every fall brings a new class of scared, excited, and fun 7th graders. They soon come to know what it is like in Junior High at Hyannis. Above right: Mr. Naylor is giving Cory Stitt a little advice on working a locker combination. For at least the first week of school, teachers hear 7th graders say, "I am late because I could not get my locker open." national honor society

Honor Society is a national organization for high school students with high character, intelligence, and qualities of leadership, citizenship, and achievement.

The Hyannis Honor Society works hard every year selling candy bars to raise money for their scholarships. Two scholarships were given this year to seniors who are members of the National Honor Society. Kevin Boots and Jennifer Runner were the recipients. Also, the Honor Society helped with school assemblies by introducing the speakers or performers. This was a new way for members to participate through this organization.

Our Student Council is composed of the vice president and student council representative from each class and organization. Our student council functions as the spokesmen for the school on major issues and suggestions to the schoolboard.

Their main responsibility throughout the year is the Homecoming festivities. This year with the change to decorating the school rather than having the parade they took all the organization and responsibility. Also, student council is in charge of all the crowning ceremony. This included the special performance Thursday night in the gym. The Student Council had to work efficiently to make Homecoming and their year together effective.

The Future Farmers of America were quite successful this year. They were very competitive and gained leadership experience. The officers who had a lot of leadership responsibility were: President-Steve Yauney, Vice President-John Thurston, Secretary-Chris Vinton, Treasurer-Stuart Carson, Sentinel-Trace Spencer, News Reporter-Mike Henderson, and Junior Advisor-James Downing. A highlight for some of these officers and all the senior members was their trip to the Denver Stock Show in January.

Each year the FFA celebrates a special week. It is their National FFA Week in February. One activity they are faithful with each year is the green hand for new members. All new members must wear a green hand for each day of that week. Pictured below: Casey Henderson is shown doing her daily duty of dipping her hand in the nice green paint. This week is also a time of public relation and special recognition for the Future Farmers of America.

For the BOAC project this year the FFA made playground equipment to put by the swimming pool. They worked on the equipment during class time. Pictured above: Troy Schroder, Mike Henderson, and J.D. Sutphen are working (playing) on the swing set. Each year the FFA must do some type of community project in order to be eligible for this award.

The FFA competed in various types of contest this this year. They judged grasses and livestock, competed in speech contests, and competed in skill tests. There were several different types of contests which enabled many students to be involved. All the members who attended the State Convention in Lincoln April 9-11 did well and gained experience.

In the two pictures above the members are shown on stage after they received a special award from Tena. This award listed the outstanding projects or hard work the members had put in.

Future Homemakers were quite busy this year, but all their work paid off as they won a Red Rose chapter award presented by the state association. They centered their activities around bridging the generation gap and making people aware of what the organization really believes in. Some of the big projects for the chapter were serving concessions at the high school rodeo, holding get togethers for the elderly and grade school children, holding a Barney Bake-Off for the teachers, celebrating FHA/HERO Week, having a Nutrition Stand, holding the Sweetheart Dance, and finally holding the Family Banquet for installation of officers. The banquet was a big success this year with theme We Are Family. This was selected because the theme for State Leadership Conference was Families We're Still the One! The following people attended that conference from Hyannis: Joy DeLisle, Christy Klase, Cynthia Boots, Julie Sears, Jeanne Wright, Jana Powles, Tena Powles, Mrs. DeLisle, Mrs. Powles and Miss Faden.

The Annual Staff was composed of a small number of hard working students. They had deadlines to meet so this annual could be delivered to you on time. Several people learned the hard way just what an annual really involves.

*The Annual Staff tried some new ideas this year. First of all, the yearbook has a theme Time Span. This is carried throughout the annual by dividing it into sections entitled A Time For . . .. The staff hopes you enjoy this new type of organization. Although there were several problems with cameras and pictures this year students and especially Mrs. DeLisle worked very hard to bring you quality pictures. We hope you enjoy the action shots and some of the fun student life. This book is for you. Please, have fun with it and appreciate it.*

"Hello from Bertha" performed by Trudy Becker, Melody Wilcox, Cynthia Boots, and Kathy Koch received 2nd at Sandhills, 3rd at Panhandle and went to state.

Dan Naylor presented No More Mister Nice Guy to win both the Panhandle and Sandhills Conferences and place 6th at the state contest in Kearney.

Joy DeLisle and Christy Klase performed Terri and the Angel and won the Sandhills Conference. They also placed 3rd in Panhandle, and although they won a superior at the district contest they did not qualify for state.

speech & drama

First in Sandhills for six consecutive years. That is an excellent record for a speech team and our team holds that position. Even though only 5 of the 22 members had past experience in high school competition they worked hard and did a terrific job. The group placed third at Panhandle, first at Sandhills, and did an excellent job at district contest. Most members received superiors and two groups won the honor of attending the State Speech Contest held at Kearney. Way to go Speech Team!

a minor incident

"A Minor Incident" by Hini Brooks is an encounter between an upper class woman, Leanore, and a hippie, Ray. They meet because of a car accident caused by Ray's friend, Terry. Ray and Leanore learn that they are actually alike inside. The play stresses the loneliness of people and the fear they have of getting involved with other people's problems.

"A Minor Incident" received Superior at Panhandle, was first at District and placed sixth at State.

In the play were Danny Naylor as Ray, Joy DeLisle as Leanore, Wayne Morgan as Terry, and Cynthia Boots as the policewoman. The Gawkers, in bright-colored "bags" won the Outstanding Actor award at Panhandle. They were Trudy Becker, Kelly Douglas, Christy

The Library Club worked all year taking care of the library through various activities. They have kept the magazines and books in order, kept charge of students studying in the library, and signed passes. Not only do they care for books and magazines, but they order films from ESU and return them back for teachers each week.

Each period there were different people working, and some worked after school. Each period brought a little different experience for the Library Club members. Although it may seem like a thankless job, it is a great way to get out of study hall.

A TIME FOR MUSIC

"The Sound of Music" - that is what most students heard coming from the band room first thing each morning. Band members met together from 8:00 until 9:00 and then individually met with Mr. Naylor throughout the day for private lessons or simply to practice a song. These members of our band worked very hard during the year to prepare for contests and performances. Our band spent this fall on the football field practicing for field competition and marching up and down the streets working on street marching. After long hours and feelings of frustration, the day of competition arrived. The band traveled to Sidney where under the direction of Drum Majors Joy DeLisle and Shari Shankland, they did an outstanding job.

When marching band competition was finished it was time for Concert Band. It was time to work on what seemed impossible music but the band practised and made beautiful music. Our school was fortunate to have two people chosen to go to the High Plains Music Festival. They were Steve DeLisle in tuba and Christy Klase in tympany and bells. All too quickly the District Music Contest in Chadron rolled around. Many students took extra time to practice in groups and as soloists. Dave Michel received a "superior". Brian Anderson, John Boots, Steve DeLisle, Todd Yorges, the Percussion Ensemble, and the Stage Band received "excellents". The full band received an excellent.

We are very proud of these people and many were asked to play in our spring concert. The band finished off their year by providing the community with a wonderful concert and practicing on music for next year.

Steve DeLisle and other members of the band during their Homecoming performance.

Drum Majors for the 1980-81 year were Shari Shankland and Joy DeLisle. Shari directed the flags and Joy worked with the band during practice and both directed the band during performances.

It was a very good year for both the Jr. High and High School choirs under the direction of Mr. Naylor. The Jr. High chorus gained experience and learned to understand music. The High School chorus earned a superior rating at District Music Contest which was a big highlight of the year. In addition, something new was started as a swing choir was formed. This group performed very well after their beginning in the spring.

*The Jr. High choir worked hard to prepare the music for their musical Wheels in November. After that, they studied music and learned how to read notes. It is required that every Jr. High student take choir. Thus, there was a thirty-five member enthusiastic choir. Pictured above are the Jr. High boys and girls as they listen in class.*

Third row: Sharon Lenz, Shae Herman, Maria Stoddard, Ruth Runner, Lex Ann Parker, Jodi Thompson, Cherly Applegarth, Jane Yauney, Melissa Mesic, Julie Sears, Lisa Boots, Barb Jamison, Debbie Kramer, Darrell Bullington, Mike Henderson, Carl Atchison. Trudy Becker sang a solo for music contest.

Above: Steve DeLisle prepares for his solo. This year, Mr. Naylor took more entries to the district contest than ever before. There were two superiors; one went to Dave Michal and the other was earned by the High School choir. All of the other entries did quite well for Hyannis.

Theater has survived war, plague, revolution, bad actors, and television. The reason, we suggest it is that theater fills vital human needs - the need for communication, understanding, involvement, passion and laughter. Perhaps it's alsoworth pointing out that no living theater anywhere in the world reaches more people with this enhancement of life than does that of the American high school .

In the top picture the policemen charm Eileen with their song "Darling Eileen." In the picture above Mrs. Wade played by Melody Wilcox is telling her daughter Helen played by Shelley Herman what she should do. Dana Ellis playing the Wreck shocks Mrs. Wade with his attire.

Jennifer Runner and Shari Shankland portrayed the two sisters Eileen and Ruth who had so many problems on their arrival in New York. Their song "Ohio" brought them memories of back home.

Lex Ann Parker as Violet, the girl constantly working on Christopher Street.

Wonderful Town was the Saga of two sisters from Ohio trying to make their way in New York. Ruth, the elder, has motherly instincts and wants to become a writer. Eileen is coquette who can't help making men her slaves. Beginning in their Greenwich Village apartment, the narrative shifts to the Subways, the editorial offices of a magazine, the Brooklyn Navy Yard, the police station, and ending with great enthusiasm in one of the village's torrid night spots.

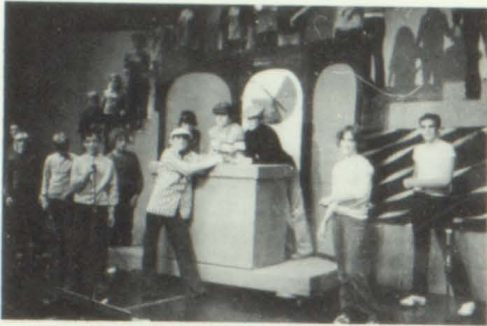

Wonderful Town provided numerous opportunities for character roles and the members of the cast were exceptional in each role.

Shown left is the scene where the lead characters have a "Nice Talk." Wayne Morgan playing Frank Lippencot, Brian Anderson playing Chick Clark, and Danny Naylor as Bob Baker the editor all played their part in romance. Mr. Baker falls in love with Ruth and Eileen finally choses Frank over Chick. To complete the romance Kevin Boots playing Appopolous the painter and landlord on Christopher Street finds Mrs. Wade quite attractive.

The Jr. High proudly presented the musical Wheels in November. It was a very successful production, in which, all the background music was recorded. The musical depicted the stages through which wheels have evolved. Also, pictured is Jeff White, who was the narrator.

senior high boys basketball

The Hyannis Boys Basketball team enjoyed one of its most successful seasons recorded in Hyannis' history. Experience, combined with height, talent, and leaping ability lead the Longhorns to a 15-6 season. Five of its six losses came from teams that were positioned at the top of class B and C rankings. However, the Longhorns were put out of contention in their first district basketball game by a double-overtime, last second shot.

The Junior Varsity Girls Basketball season was very successful with a winning record of 6 wins and 5 losses. It was a very competitive year in which the girls gained a lot of experience. Even though at times they felt like they were playing football! The team consisted of 14 girls. The starters were: Shae Herman, Casey Henderson, Lori White, Ruth Runner, and Jane Yauney. The girls feel that they will have a good season next year due to the many returning players.

These pictures are the five starters in the varsity games. The varsity girls had a much better year this year than in the past few years. They finished the season with a 8-9 record. Brenda Anderson was the leading scorer and Nancy Zickefoose was the leading rebounder. The girls placed third in the Sandhills Conference and fourth in the Panhandle Conference. The highlight of their year was their 50-46 win over Sandhills. The 19 member team consisted of 8 freshmen, 6 sophomores, 3 juniors, and 2 seniors. The team owes much of their success to Coach McIntosh who worked hard to make their year successful.

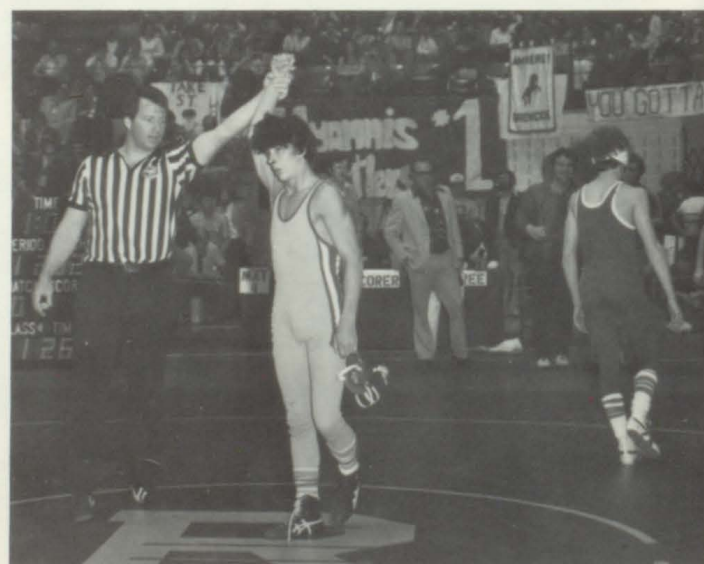

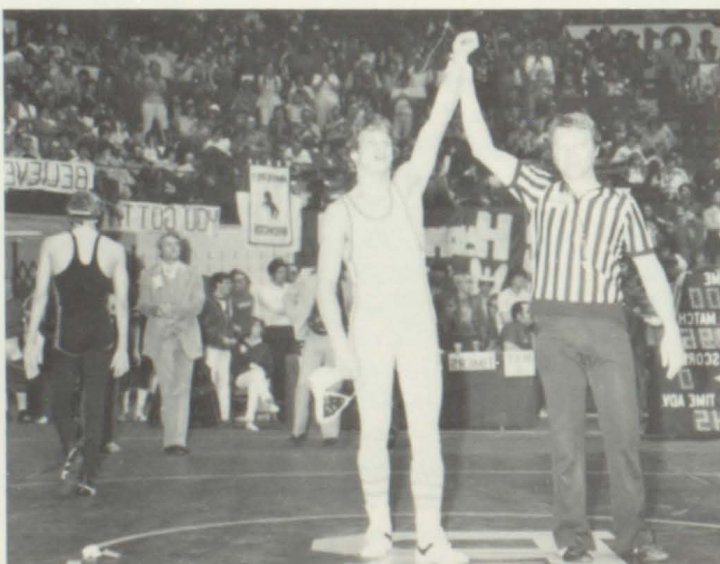

wrestling wrestling wrestling

This was a very outstanding year for the Hyannis Wrestling team. They brought Hyannis a State Championship, an achievement that will long be remembered by this community. All of the pictures on this page will hopefully portray to you all the excitement of victory at the State Tournament. The picture at the top left is the team receiving their trophy. The picture to the right shows Wayne Morgan and Trace Spencer during the parade of champions. The pictures below share the triumph that Jay Dubs achieved in getting third place and the State Championship that Bryan Bullington enjoyed as he completed his 26-0 season. Also placing at the State Tournament were Wayne Morgan, Darrell Bullington, and Trace Spencer all state champion runnerup. John Thurston had a super showing at state. He placed fourth as a first year competitor. The other seniors competing at state were Steve Yaune and James Downing. Mike Henderson and Jess Kohl also competed at state.

The District Tournament had its own history to add. Hyannis out scored the next team by 100 points. Plus, Chris Vinton added to the thrill as he won his first match of the season at the District Tournament and went on to capture a fifth place medal.

The entire year was a thrill of victory for the wrestlers.

The girls track team showed that size does not matter. Although they were small in number, they were mighty. They placed second in both Panhandle and Sandhills Conferences. Besides placing well several girls set school records. Brenda Anderson broke the 100 meter hurdles record with 18.8. Shae Herman broke the 100 meter dash record with a time of 13.4, and Jeanne Wright ran the 800 meter dash in 2:39.6. Even though they had several injuries and many ran with pain, they did a fantastic job. They showed us that no matter how small you are if you have the desire to win you can.

The Boys Track Team broke records, met goals, and won meets in fine style. They were victorious in both home meets and placed well all year long. The following school records were set: Keith Blaylock broke the 100 meter dash in 11.7, and Paul Vinton broke the 100 meter high hurdle record in 15.3 and the 300 meter intermediate hurdles in 41.6. Matt Fisher broke the high jump record by clearing the bar at 6 foot. Two relays set records. The 400 meter team of Matt and Grant Fisher and Pete and Paul Vinton at the Alliance Twilight Meet ran a 47.4 for the record. Also, the mile relay of Matt Fisher, Warren Gerken, Paul Vinton, and Pete Vinton set a record of 3:41. Finally, Pete Vinton broke 3 of his own records in the 3 events he went to the state meet in. He set the 400 meter record at 50.6 and the 1600 meter record during his run at state of 4:31.63. His run at state in the 800 meters came as a slight disappointment to Pete because he placed 3rd in state with a time of 1:58.02, but it is a new record for him. Pete also placed 5th in the 400 meters and the 1600 meters at the State Meet.

Finally, the team of Kerry Becker and Monte Jamison show us how it should be done in the team roping. These pictures show the part of rodeo everyone enjoys. However, there is another side. There is all the work it takes to make a rodeo go. That is why you do not have to rodeo to be a part of our club. Many members support this great sport simply by all the work they do. The members listed below all do their part. Two people do more than their part and that, of course, is Jeannie and Gene Davis. They do a fantastic job!!

The H Club and HAFA are clubs that include the male and female athletes whom have lettered in an athletic sporting event in high school.

These clubs make money by serving concessions at various events throughout the year. The H Club members used their money to take a trip to Denver.

They enjoyed viewing a Professional Basketball game and a Professional Hockey game. The HAFA had a big project sponsoring a little girls basketball clinic and concluded it with a game between the girls. Both of these clubs provide some unity and recognition for the athletes of HHS.

A TIME FOR FUN

Homecoming week kept everyone busy with "Spirit Days," plans for decorating, and practices for the Thursday evening performance. It was decided not to have the parade this year but to assign each class a hallway to decorate using the theme "Cartoon Characters." The volleyball team played St. Agnus Thursday night and lost a tough game. Their game was followed by a presentation of the candidates for King and Queen and a band and chorus floor show, under the direction of Mr. Naylor, brought the evening to a flashy close.

Friday morning was spent in a mad rush to finish decorating halls and in the afternoon they were opened for public display. That evening, the Longhorns tangled with the Anselmo Merna Coyotes and emerged victorious with a score of 26-0. The King and Queen Candidates: (left to right) Jay Dubs, Tracey Becker, Bryan Bullington, Kathy Connealy, Shelley Herman, and Matt Fisher were again presented and last years royalty, Nicki Ogier and Clark Jeary crowned Bryan and Kathy as our reigning King and Queen. The awards for the hall decorating were also presented with 1st place- Juniors (left), and 2nd place- a tie between Sophomores (opposite page top) and Freshman (opposite page middle). The Homecoming Dance followed with music provided by Knights of the Turntable, and as the clock struck midnight, 1980's Homecoming ended.

A castle glowing in the night surrounded with hedges and a running waterfall below - that was the setting for the 1981 Jr. - Sr. Prom held April 11. The theme for this year was "Sometimes a Fantasy" by Billy Joel. The Junior class worked long and hard decorating the gym for the dance but their work paid off and they had a beautiful Prom. The night started at the U.C.C. church where the Juniors, Seniors, and their dates gathered for a meal served by the Junior mothers, and to hear the Prophecies and Wills of the Seniors read. Afterwards they moved on to the High School gym where they danced to the music of Starlight, a excellent band. The Junior class tried something new this year by selecting a queen and king for the prom. Selection of the candidates, queen, and king were done by the Junior and Senior classes. The candidates were Matt Fisher, Jay Dubs, Bruce Anderson, Tracey Becker, Shelly Hermand, and Terri Schroder. The 1981 Jr. - Sr. Prom King and Queen are Bruce Anderson and Tracey Becker. This year's prom was a truely enjoyable evening and the Junior class deserves a big thank you for their fine job.

SWEETHEART DANCE

THE RAINBOW CONNECTION

Kermit the Frog singing "The Rainbow Connection", while teenagers dance in a rainbow setting-what a way to describe the atmosphere at our FHA - FFA Sweetheart Dance held March 6! The dance was sponsored by FHA and FFA. "The Rainbow Connection" from the Muppet Movie was the theme and the Rythm Machine provided the music. The FFA Queen candidates for this year were Angela Munger, Tena Powles, and Jennifer Runner. The FFA elected Tena Powles as their queen based on her duties in FHA during her Jr. High and High School years. She was crowned by John Thurston, the Vice President of FFA. The FHA King candidates were James Downing, Tracey Spencer, and Chris Vinton. The FHA elected James Downing as their king on the basis of his work in FFA. He was crowned by Shari Shankland, the Secretary of FHA. This year's Sweetheart Dance was a big success and everyone enjoyed it immensely.
