The Editor Staff and Sponsor of the 1982 Annual SEASONS regret the reversal of the picture captions on pages 5, 53, and 61.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven:

a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 NIV

Through the years we the seniors, have experienced each of these seasons. As we leave you we realize that we are going into a world where each season will be longer and possibly more harsh. But in facing the future we know, we will survive because of what we have experienced and learned in our high school years. We, the seniors, hope that from us you will realize how vital these years are to you and that you will live them to the fullest.

“a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance”

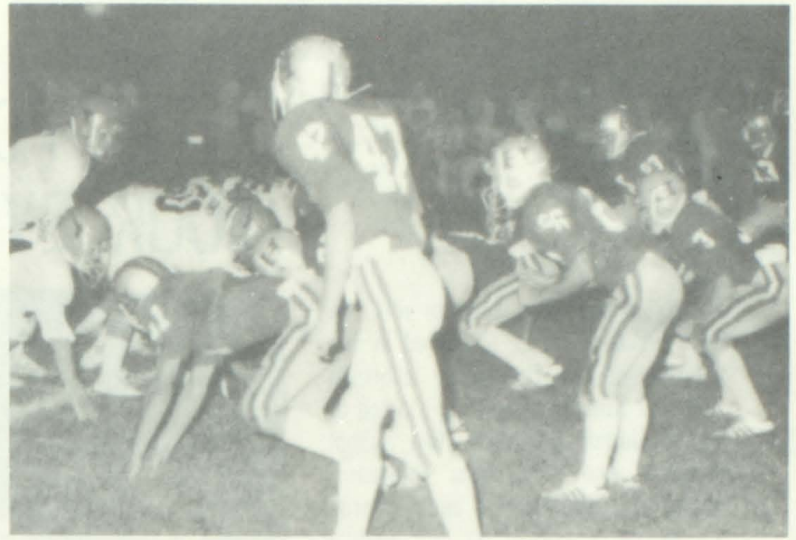

Interspersed with the seriousness and concentration of academic study and the dedication to sports are the fun times. But with this fun come the happiness and disappointment which every activity in our life must have.

Following the football game, Rosalie Ogier and Bud Boyer were crowned Homecoming Queen and King by last year's royalty. Hall Decoration Awards were announced, with the Sophomore Class' "Briar Patch" winning First, and the Senior Class' "Yellow Brick Road" placing Second.

The Homecoming football game was against Rushville with a lot of strong feeling between the teams. Travis Parker tried to intercept a pass during the hard fought game. The defence set up for a long evening interrupted by a tremendous thunderstorm. Rushville won 3-29.

The Band presented a field show in the gym the evening before Homecoming, using the routine to be presented at the Sidney Band Day. Homecoming Royalty were presented to the crowd.

FOR YOUR EYES ONLY

"For your eyes only. Only for you. The love inside me . . ." played in the background as the newly crowned 1981-82 Sweetheart royalty started to dance. Junior High and High School students and their dates entered a world of flashing lights and unicorns on March 5, 1982, for this annual winter dance, with the latest music provided by Red Tag. The Sweetheart candidates were seniors of FHA and FFA. The King and Queen were elected on the basis of their activities in their organizations.

"Aren't we having fun?" comments Rosalie to her date Brian during a slow dance!

"If my friends could see me now!"

"Peace, Brother!" Christy and her date let the world know that everything is alright with them.

SPORTS

“a time for war and a time for peace”

Competitive sports require intense concentration and the ability to forget the strong feeling when the game is over.

MUSIC AND DRAMATICS

“a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them”

To achieve excellence in the fields of music and dramatics, students must learn to project part of their inner self to an audience. In return, the audience will give them recognition. When persons learn to handle themselves in this way, they are on their path to achievement.

The Band in street-marching formation moves down the street in Sidney, led by Drum Major, Joy DeLisle.

The Band members move forward in step at the opening part of the Field Show.

BAND

The trombone, tuba and baritone sections play "Another One Bites the Dust" while accompanied by Christy and Amy Klase on the bells and xylophone.

The expression on Jack's face expresses the feelings of the band members returning home from band competition.

John Boots, Dave Michals, Brenda Anderson and Debi Dredla make up for the sleep they lost at Kansas City. The students learned to sleep and feel at home on the chartered bus.

Band Director, Gary Naylor, and Drum Major, Joy DeLisle, stride off the field after accepting the Field Marching Trophy the Band won at Sidney.

The year was a hectic one for the Band. Not only did they compete at Sidney's Band Day, but they also traveled to Kansas City to compete in national competition. At Sidney they won the Field Marching Competition. At Kansas City they received a 3 on a scale of 1-5. While at Kansas City they spent two days at Worlds of Fun Amusement Park, besides visiting the Truman Museum. Although they attended the NPVC Band Day, they did not go to the District Competition as they were at K.C. Christy Klase, Dave Michals, and Sharon Lenz were chosen to attend the High Plains Band Festival at Chadron. Dan Naylor won the Sousa Award, and Christy Klase was the Music Award given by the Music Parents.

Members of the Band, with Flag Girls Chris Macke, Becky Becker, Jana Powles and Maria Stoddard, with Drum Major, Joy, stand in formation in the High School gym.

CHORUS

The highlight of this year's choir was receiving new uniforms. The Music Parents Organization paid for the majority of the cost and the rest was paid for by the School Board and parents. Everyone has commented how "smart" their choir looks.

Three concerts were given by the High School Choir. The North Platte Valley Conference Contest saw Hyannis win second, although it was felt they should have won first! Christmas and Spring Concerts went well. Many people commented that they felt this choir was one of the best Mr. Naylor has had. Three members were selected for the High Plains Music Festival in Chadron. They were Joy DeLisle, Walter Bestol and Dan Naylor.

The band looking their best!

The musical "Sugar" is a rib-tickling adventure story of two out-of-work musicians who, after witnessing a gangland murder, dress like women and seek refuge in an all-girl band. The two musicians, Joe (Dan Naylor) and Jerry (Todd Yorges) experience many interesting and embarrassing situations. One such situation involves the blond bombshell and singer in the band, Sugar Kane, (Shae Herman). The two impostors, while trying to find a millionaire for Sugar, find it very hard to conceal their identity from her. The plan backfires for them when the millionaire, Osgood Feilding (Dana Ellis), falls in love with Jerry. Joe, meanwhile, casts off his masquerade and courts Sugar. The story ends happily as the four prepare to journey to South America. "Sugar" is blessed with many other characters that add to the hilarious story.

The girls looking pretty!

JUNIOR HIGH MUSICAL 'TEEN'

The Junior High play 'TEEN' was about the problems of being a teenager in Junior High School. Boys are just starting to get enough courage to ask girls to dance, and girls are fighting over their boyfriends. All of the cast did an excellent job and deserve congratulations.

ONE-ACT PLAY

This year's drama class presented the one-act play The Tower for competition. The play dealt with the inner walls and barriers of the human mind. The play was a challenge to stage as it was taken from a radio show. A great amount of audio and lighting effects were needed. This aspect of the play was handled by a fine group of play production students. The cast worked hard, and the work paid off, as they won the Sandhills Conference, the Hyannis Invitational, and qualified to go to State. They placed well at State and could be proud of the job they did.

The Class of 82 won third place in the Homecoming Hall Decoration Contest with their portrayal of "Alice in Wonderland." Magazine sales was the big event before Christmas at which the Juniors earned $747 to help pay for the Junior/Senior Prom. The Prom, which requires the most work of any class activity, took place in "Paradise Theater" with the theme "The Best of Times."
