This years annual is dedicated to Mr. Fisher, the school counsior and math teacher. Through the years Mr. Fisher has pushed and pleaded for computers and computer classes. In this year when "The Computer" is the "Man of the Year" and computer games are the big attraction, we are proud to have two computers and a class in which to begin to learn how to enter the age of computers. Thank you, Mr. Fisher.

We the Freshman Class of '86 think that we accomplished a lot throughout the school year of nineteen eighty two and eighty three. We feel we should thank the upper classmen for leading the way. We would also like to thank the faculty. Maybe sometimes in the future we will help lead the way for others.

Mr. Crabill delivering his address.

The Senior Class of 1983 was an outstanding class in academics, athletics, music and drama talent and leadership. Because of this, it would be impossible to list the scholarships awarded. Approximately $45,000 in scholarships were granted to this class.

Mr. Crabill, who was chosen by the Senior Class as Commencement Speaker, gave a very entertaining yet meaningful speech, quoting from Shakespeare, Milton and Russell. Brenda Anderson and Todd Yorges, as Valedictorian and Salutatorian each presented their challenge to the graduating class.

Brenda Anderson, Valedictorian.
Todd Yorges, Salutatorian.

ANNUAL STAFF

Planning and preparing 84 pages of the annual is a big job. Events must all be recorded in pictures and in writing. To earn a pin on the annual staff a student must sell annuals or ads, take develop and print pictures or prepare pages. When all do their part the job is not so difficult.

A "Thank you" to House of Photography for the Prom pictures.

Barbara Merrihew is especially appreciated for taking so many pictures at school activities and readily sharing them when they are needed.

A special "Thank You" to Glen and Duane Worley of Worley Studio for the pictures furnished to the annual of sports teams, clubs, Homecoming, Sweetheart and Graduation.

SPEECH & DRAMA TEAM

The Speech Team did not attend many meets but had a very successful year. Despite the flu and little sleep with the Sweetheart the night before, the Team won 3rd place at Bridgeport for the NPV Conference. At Cody for the Sandhills Conference, Hyannis easily took 1st. At Districts in North Platte the Team won 2nd place and the Runner-up Plaque, and sent 3 to State. Several members received 3rd place at District.

Steve placed 1st at District and tied for 6th at State. Jane received 2nd at Districts and 8th at State. LexAnn won 1st at Districts and 2nd at State.

ENTERTAINMENT-NOW AND THEN

"Entertainment - Now and Then" was presented by the Junior High Chorus in November. It was a musical remembrance of the development of the early radio programs and then the days of live T.V. Using a format of a T.V. Talk Show, the play used flashbacks in song and dance to tell the story.

FEATHERTOP - 1 ACT PLAY

The 1982-83 Drama Class presented the one-act play, Feathertop, for competition. Feathertop symbolizes man's folly and phoniness. A witch creates a man from a scarecrow, and he is kept alive by pipesmoke. He goes out into the world and is looked on as a Savior from everyone he meets. He realizes, after seeing his real self as a scarecrow in a mirror, that he does not want to live the life of a phony person. He returns to the witch and throws his life-giving pipe away, returning to a scarecrow once again.

Cast of Feathertop: Darrell B., Major Whitby; Julie S., a lady; Sheila N., Dancer; Maria S., Scarecrow; Ruth R., Maid; Terry M., Graham Bell; Warren G., Judge Gookin; Walter B., Bob Endicott; Darin E., Feathertop; Annette A., Mother Rigby; Jana P., Diccon; Becky B., Polly Gookin.

While dancing the minuet with Polly, Feathertop grows weak from lack of smoke, as the dancers stare curiously.

Graham Bell and Major Whitly inform Feathertop of Judge Gookins corrupt ways.

Feathertop sees his true self as the others gaze in horror, and Polly faints.

Congratulations went to Darin and Annette for winning Best Acot and Best Actress at the Sandhills Conference Tournament. An acting achievement award went to Darrell. Feathertop was named Best Light Play at the Hyannis Invitational and placed Second in Sandhills Conference. At Districts First Place was lost because of overtime.

CURTAIN CALL FOR CLIFFORD

"Curtain Call for Clifford" is about putting on a typical school play. What is not so typical is the leading man, Clifford, the shyest boy at school. Learning lines is not the only problem; he also has to act cool while kissing the girl of his dreams, while confining her steady it is only acting! The drama teacher has a nervous disorder, and the boy running the lights keeps turning them off. After the final performance, or was it a track meet, all is well.

ONCE UPON A GALAXY

Just as in 1967 "Once Upon a Mattress" came to Hyannis. However, the '83 cast exchanged "Galaxy" for "Mattress", and the audience found themselves in the year 2688. As with each musical he had done, "Galaxy" was brought to light by Mr. Naylor's own genius. The Minstrel (Mike Henderson) opened the show with the help of the Junior Drama Class. Due to illness Mike missed the first two performances, but thanks to the hard work of Tim Yorges, the show went on. The first scene introduced the talkative Queen Qgravain (Jeanne Wright), simple and innocent Prince Dauntless (Keith Blaylock), playboy but mute King Sextimus (Brian Anderson), strikingly strange Wizard (Steve DeLisle), and the beautiful but desperate Lady Larkin (shared by Becky Becker and Julie Sears) Production numbers performed by the Ladies In Waiting, Knights of the Org, and the Utility Chorus did an excellent job from "Opening for a Princess" to "Quiet".

Before the end of the first act the audience met the rest of the cast: the dashing Sir Henry (Ken Daily), the "Groucho Marks" Jester (Todd Yorges), and the loud, klutzy Princess Winnifred (LexAnn Parker), not to mention all of the very qualified principals. Like all of Hyannis's musicals "Galaxy" had its share of surprises. One of the funniest was the "Spanish Panic", choreographed and instructed by artist-in-residence, Mary Martin.

The Utility Chorus: Joe, Tim, Shawn, Kevin, Daryl, Kim, Katie, Teri, Peter, Tim Thad, Mitzi, Lindy, Amy, Robin, Bridget, Tracy and Lauri.

During the 1982-83 school year the Hyannis High School Chorus attended the Bayard Choral Clinic where they performed with other schools as a mass choir and then competed with the other schools. Hyannis received 2nd. During the Winter and Spring Concerts, they performed for a large public audience. They next competed at the Chadron Music Contest, where they received an excellent. Many individuals and groups performed: Boys High Voice - Todd Yorges - I; Boys Medium Voice - Walter Bestol - II; Boys Duet - Todd and Tim Yorges - I; Girls High Voice - Julie Sears III; Girls High Voice - Becky Becker - III; Girls Medium Voice - Jana Powles - II; Girls Low Voice - Lindy Naylor - II; Girls Trio - Brenda Anderson, Jeanne Wright, Deb Dredla - III; Girls Duet - Jane Yauney and Sharon Lenz - II; Jana Powles and Walter Bestol - Mixed Duet - III. All the members of Chorus were in the Musical and played a big part in competition throughout the school year.

BAND

The Band played for the REA dinner in Hyannis and for most of the home games. "On Thursday night I was attending the St. Agnes-Hyannis volleyball game and one aspect of the entire evening really caught me by surprise, a nice surprise. The Hyannis High School swing band under the tutoring of Gary Naylor, is the most impressive small school ensemble I have ever heard. They played snappy, "now" music, and they really had the joint hop-pin'. Congratulations, Hyannis swing band." Alliance Times-Herald

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Hyannis FHA Chapter's biggest event of the first semester was attending the District Convention at Broken Bow. District Officers were sworn in (see below), and State Officer Candidates, Julie Sears of Hyannis and Ann Bradley of Mullen, were presented by Julie Tucker, State Vice President. Below right: Sessions were presented throughout the day by the District Officers. Steve, District Encounter Chairperson, presented a session with the help of Jana on Parliamentary Procedure. Todd and Steve presented a session on Male Involvement in FHA.

At Christmas time FHA members decorated the doors of the classrooms and office for a cheery Christmas spirit.

"Operation Reach Out" was the theme of the FHA Parents Banquet. Above: Mrs. Don Powles and Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Chapter Parents; Jeanne, Junior Advisor; Jilie, State Officer; Dana Local President; Ruth, Devotions Chairperson; Dr. and Mrs. Sears, Chapter Parents; and Mrs. Cover, Sponsor, with back to camera sit at the head table.

The Hyannis FFA Chapter was very active and competitive in 9-82-83. The year started in August when the Chapter had its annual cow/calf competition between the members at the Grant County Fair. The Livestock Judging Team was successful this year, winning 1st at all judging, with a 3rd at District and at State. The Meats Team qualified for State by winning first at Scottsbluff, and later a Blue ribbon at State. The Livestock Management Team was successful all year. At State Jack Klase was the State Champion in Swine Management, and Grant Fisher was 3rd in Beef Management. The Welding Team placed 5th, and Loren Dubs was the State Champion gas welder. The Chapter BOAC Project was to build picnic tables and place them at the fair grounds.

At District Speech Contest Jana placed first in Wildlife Speaking. Steve DeLisle placed 2nd in Public Speaking, The Ag Demonstration Team placed 2nd, and Suzie Linenbrink won 3rd in Creed Speaking. Jack Klase won 1st and a red ribbon at State and Jana received a Silver Medal at State.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM 1983

A change for the Prom this year was having the banquet at the school where there was more room. The Juniors worked very hard on the decorations of mountains, clouds and stars for the theme, "Up Where We Belong". The theme was taken from the song which won an Academy award the next Monday. Most people thought the music was some of the best ever, and the Prom was a big success.

FHA - FFA SWEETHEART 1983

FANTASY OF YOU AND I

Red, glimmering hearts and silvery balloons set the scene for the 1983 Sweetheart Dance. "Fantasy of You and I", symbolized with romantic silhouettes, was the theme. Sweetheart Royalty is chosen by a vote from the FFA and the FHA members. The Royalty must be a member of these groups and are judged for their participation in FFA and FHA. Music for the dance was provided by the San Francisco Disco.

Mike and Jeanne dance the first dance.
