STUDENT LIFE

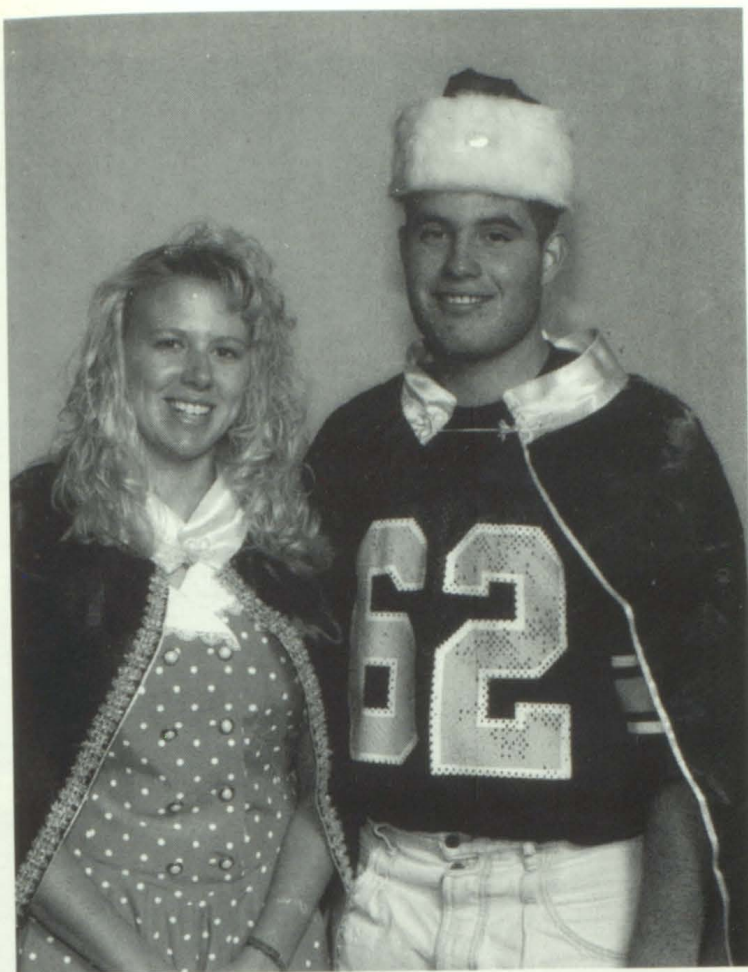

Electrifying

Life at Hyannis High School was totally electrifying this year. The large number of activities available to the students kept them on the move. Dances, banquets, concerts, and graduation kept everyone busy. With all that was going on, there was no time for life to slow down. Even though the year was busy, students still found time to relax and have some fun. Alliance being the nearest town with fast food restaurants and a movie theatre, students spend a great deal of time on Highway 2. Some of the most popular activities that students do on the weekends are hunting, fishing, watching TV (sports), chasing girls, and cruising. But when it comes down to the basics, a great deal of the time is spent on homework.

Homecoming

By Bryon Powles

Homecoming-1992! The week of October 19-23 saw the Hyannis High School full of spirit and enthusiasm. Students participated in Crazy Day, Toga Day, Tank-top and Shorts Day, Backward Day, and Blue and White Day. The football team was on a fire when they beat Minatare 50-0. The volleyball team was also victorious by beating Minatare in three sets. The victory march and bonfire saw much participation from the students. The Homecoming Court consisted of Josh Guerue, Robert Dyer, Bryon Powles, Jodi Smith, and Lorena Chick. The Homecoming King and Queen of 1992 were Josh Guerue and Jodi Smith. The Homecoming Dance, after the football game, ended this year's Homecoming activities that went on all week long.

The 1992 Homecoming King and Queen looking marvelous! The spirit of HHS was shown through the burning of the H during the Homecoming Bonfire.

The halls of HHS were decorated on Friday of Homecoming Week.

End Of The Road

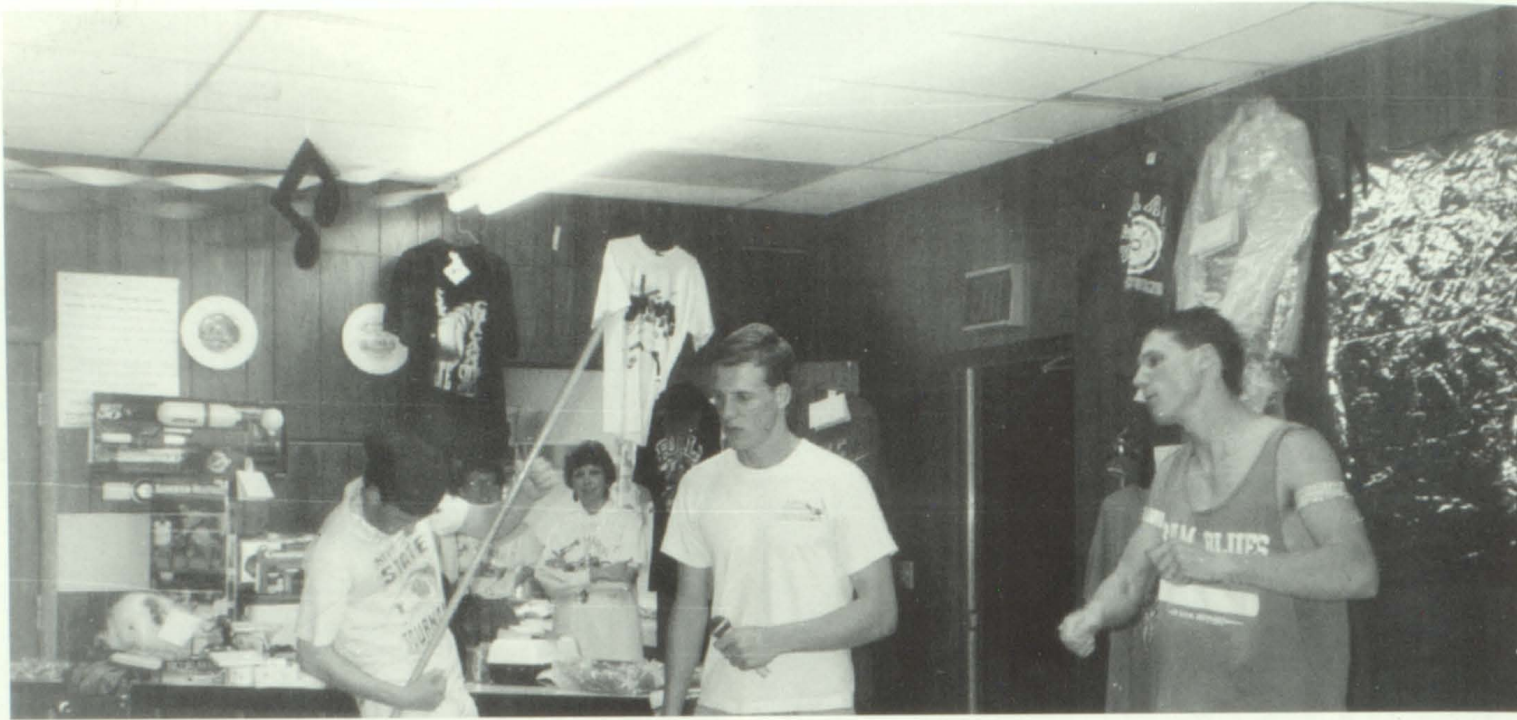

The '93 prom theme "End of the Road" was an appropriate theme. Besides graduation, prom is the next to the last stop on the road. The Junior class and their sponsor, Lynell Stillwell, did an excellent job of decorating and providing their guests with a memorable evening. The '93 Prom Royalty was Queen Lorena Chick, King Robert Evans and attendants Jodi Smith and Randy Craig.

PEOPLE

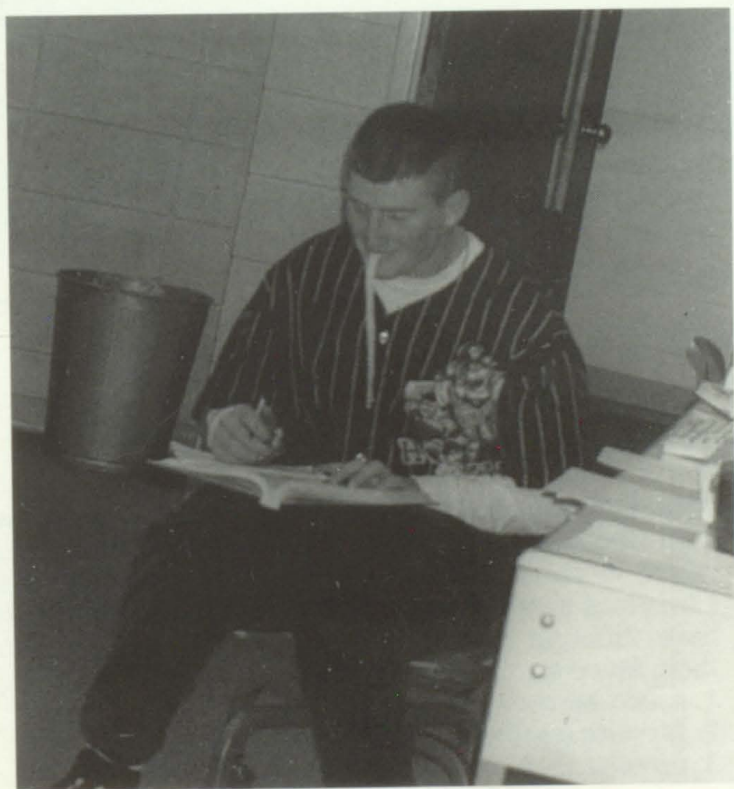

The Power Behind HHS

by Peter Schreurs

Everyone at HHS was charged up to the Max this year. From the faculty to the students, it seemed a shock wave kept them flying all year. The mighty Longhorn sports teams blazed a trail throughout the year that left few survivors. In every activity they used their brain power, muscle power and Longhorn power to overcome every obstacle. In every way, the people at HHS showed they were ready and willing to take on anything that came their way.

Seventh Grade A New Experience.

Copy By Seventh Grade

We had many adjustments to make as we entered junior high for the first time. The first couple of weeks we seemed to be late for class, due to problems of opening lockers and finding our way around the building. Early in the year, class officers were elected to give us the leadership we needed as we planned for Homecoming. We became "energized" on working on the Homecoming theme, "The Longhorns keep going and going..." Our batteries were really charged when we found out we won first place. As the first semester came to a close, two new students, Surena Garner and Chet O'Shea, were added to our class. Aaron Wilder moved away during Christmas break. With a class of 28, you can be sure we have different opinions, but we finally all agreed on these favorites.

1. sports hero — Michael Jordan
2. favorite teacher — Mr. Kraus
3. favorite movie — White Men Can't Jump

It's Quality Not Quantity

Copy By Eighth Graders

We may be one of the smallest classes in the school, but like they say dynamite comes in small packages. I think that describes us well, ordinary on the outside, but explosive on the inside. We have grown both in size and experience since last year. Last year we had only nine in our class and now we have a whopping ten. We lost Wade Pettit, but on the other hand, we gained Megan Stillwell and Lucinda Bruce. If we keep growing at this stunning pace we might have 15 people by the time we're seniors. We may not have big numbers, but we have an over abundance of personality and talent. We are growing closer together as a class every day. We always have a lot of questions and ideas to share. We're always ready to help out at anytime. We want to try out new things including high school. We are a class of raw talent that has not yet reached our full potential, but when we do you had better watch out! This year's class officers are: Bob Fox Pres., Sondra Fix — Vice Pres., Trish Kime — Sec., Megan Stillwell - News Rep., Matt Stuke — Treas., and Corey Evans - Student Coun. rep.

Success Lies In Their Future

The freshman class is looking forward to their next three years at HHS. Junior high seemed to be a snap for them both academically and athletically, and their freshman year seemed no different. During the first semester they placed eighteen students on the honor roll and honorable mention lists. They were a part of the the OTC runner-up volleyball team and members of the Second Place Team in Sandhills Conference Basketball. They plan to better these records over the next three years. Class officers were: President, Ann Cole; Vice President, Ryan Sexson; Secretary, Melissa Guerue; Treasurer, Jennie Knott; News Reporter Marisa Garner; and Student Council Representative, Jake Storms.

Faculty Has New Faces

By Bryon Powles

The 1992-93 school year was exciting for the faculty. Some of the teachers were on the go, doing as much as they could to improve the school. They also helped sponsor trips and other activities. There were some new faces in the H.H.S. faculty this year. They were Mr. Mead, Mrs. Stillwell, and Mr. Eberspecher. The teachers' classes were as follows: Mr. Mead-Band, Chorus; Mr. Kraus-Drivers Ed, P.E., Weights, Math; Mrs. Garner-English, Journalism, Annual; Mrs. Stillwell-English, Spanish; Mr. Ellis-Geometry, Computers, Chemistry; Mr. Waltman-History, Government; Mrs. DeLisle-Speech, Special Ed., Library; Mrs. Brown-Science, Biology; Mrs. Keller-Typing, Computers, Accounting, Math; Mr. Miller-Ag. Ed., Mechanics; Miss Hueftle-Health, Home Ec., SERC Fac.; Mr. Eberspecher-Art, Auto Cad., Wood Shop. The faculty did all they could to make school fun and educational. They also helped students by sponsoring dances and other school related activities.

Support Staff — Essential

By Brad Daugherty

Enough cannot be said for the support staff at HHS. The school year could not go on without the work of these individuals. Sandy Yorges, the school secretary, has consistently kept the office running smoothly for the past 13 years. The cooks, Jo Davis, Bev Ellis, & Marjorie Rice made sure students were offered balanced meals each school day. The janitors, Charles Evans and Norma Sexson, worked hard to keep the school in top condition. These people could always be found doing their best to see that the school was kept up to par.

ADMINISTRATION

Students Get A Taste Of Changes Yet To Come

Along with new superintendent, Tom Carlstrom, came some changes in the status quo that took students awhile to get used to. Some never did. One of the changes was allowing only one study hall a day. Mr. Carlstrom announced at the beginning of the school year that his door was always open and for students to stop and visit. This was a totally new concept to get use to. Principal Walt Dyer has been here for 16 years. He has been the principal here for the last 9 years. Gail Fisher, our guidance counselor, has been here for the past 25 years. He counsels with the seniors on their preparation for college. Throughout the year he also meets with the other classes. One new board member, Jerry Merrihew, was elected to the District #11 Board of Education. Other members were: Dan Vinton, Jerry Connealy, Ted Ferguson, Toni Knott, and Bob Finegan.

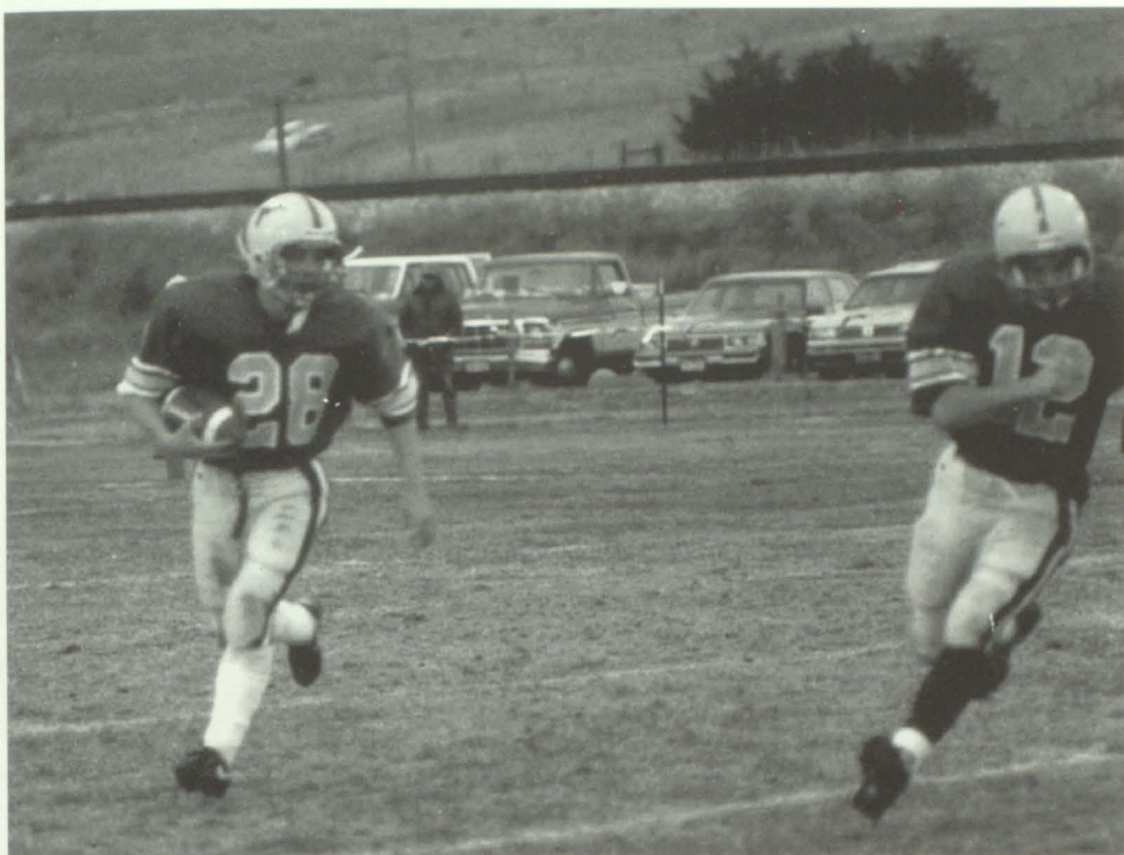

ATHLETICS

Longhorn Keep Going and Going...

*By Charles
Ferguson*

High school sports provide an opportunity for students to compete and learn as a team. The Hyannis Longhorns dominated their opponents to reach their team and personal goals. The Longhorns practiced hard to try to make it to Lincoln. Sports help one later in life because winning takes an unselfish role and sacrifices. Success only comes after hard work!

Craig carries the ball against S-E-M. Cheerleaders follow a play. Smith and Donner congratulate each other on a fine effort.

The Longhorns Lit Up The Turf

By Robert Evans

This was a great year in football. The team went 8-1 in regular season and almost clinched their first play-off game. There was a lot of leadership and hardwork and that's what gave the team a great year. The defense was very powerful and held some teams to negative yardage.

New assistant coach Glen Eberspecher put in a new offense that teamed with the defense that proved to be very destructive.

Randy Craig smiles for the camera as he reaches for the first down. Robert Evans after catching a touchdown pass against Sumner-Eddyville-Miller. Abe Wilder making a nice hit in the playoff game. A fine picture of the 8-2 Hyannis Longhorns. Jeff Kraus holding on to opponent while Robert Evans coming up to make the stick. Randy Craig getting ready to catch a pass from Jeff Kraus. Kraus making a nice move while Robert Evans throws a block to slow down the opponent. Evans making a nice hit with a little help from Craig. Josh Guerue goes into the end zone.

"I was very pleased with our football team year. I felt we played some of the best football in the five years that I have been at Hyannis and our wins over Ansley, Oshkosh and Hay Springs rank as some of the best 8 man football played in the state this year. I wish to thank our players and assistant coaches for a very special year and especially our seniors for four great years." Coach Kraus

FINAL RECORD 4-12

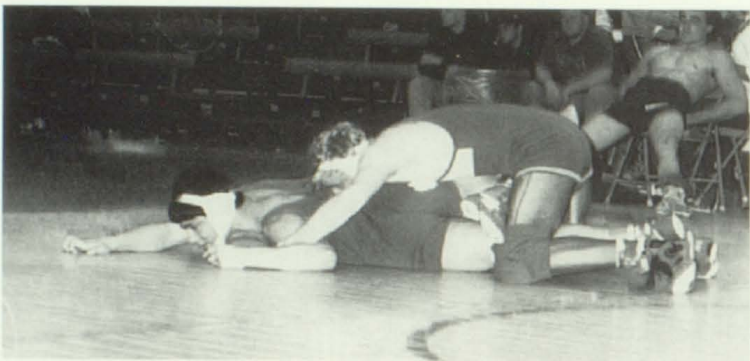

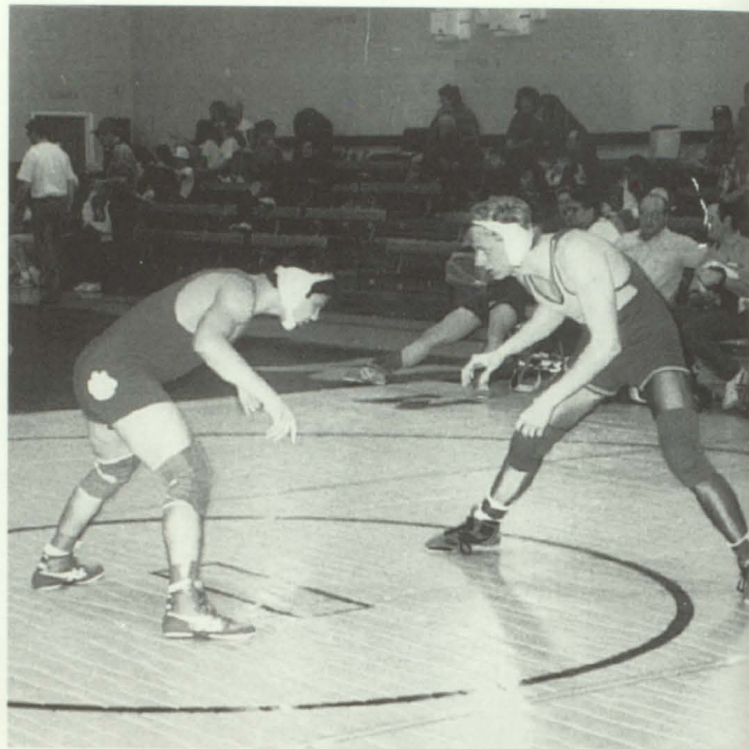

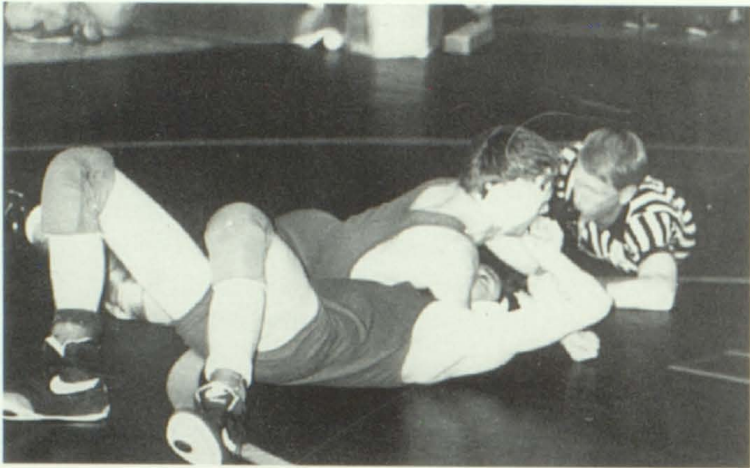

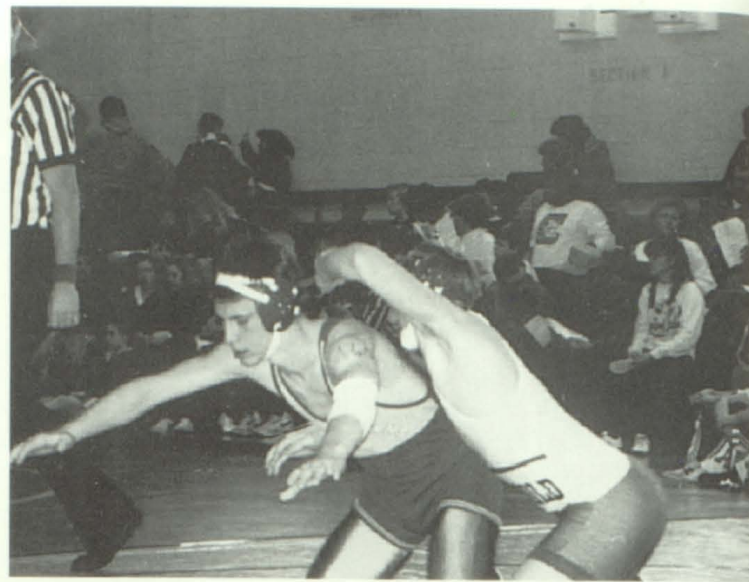

YOUNG TEAM STRUGGLES

By Peter Schreurs

The Hyannis High School Volleyball team started off the season on a low light. The Volleyball team this year was made up of mostly freshman and had very little seniority. The girls worked hard and stayed on task and improved as the year went on. They worked hard and placed second at the Oregon Trails Conference. With hard work and discipline the girls can look forward to a brighter future. This years varsity players were; Lisa Brown, Stacy Donner, Jodi Smith, Lorena Chick, Amy Simpson, Jami Brenneman, Randi Sheets, Rachel Meyer, Ann Cole, Jeanne Sexson, Rene Olson, Jenni Knott, and Jessica Cady. Coaches were Janice Kraus assisted by Marina Garner, Student Manager Kris Schreurs. Leading Scorer this year was Lorena Chick with 97 points, leading blocker was Jami Brenneman 17, and leading spiker Jami Brenneman with 30 aces.

Team congratulates Lorena on an ace serve. Amy goes up for the block. Hyannis ready to return the volley.

H.H.S. wrestlers had small numbers, but big goals.

by Randy Craig

The wrestling team had a rough start. The team started with four wrestlers, but after the third week of competition Abe Wilder moved leaving Hyannis with three wrestlers. The wrestlers and their records were as follows: freshman-Ryan Sexson at 160 lbs. with 4-11 record, seniors-Ethan Schreurs at 171 lbs. and 7-10 record, and Randy Craig at 145 lbs. and a record of 22-3. Randy also placed third at the district tournament which qualified him for state. At state Randy came through with a second place medal, his loss came from Kenis Byam of Ansley.

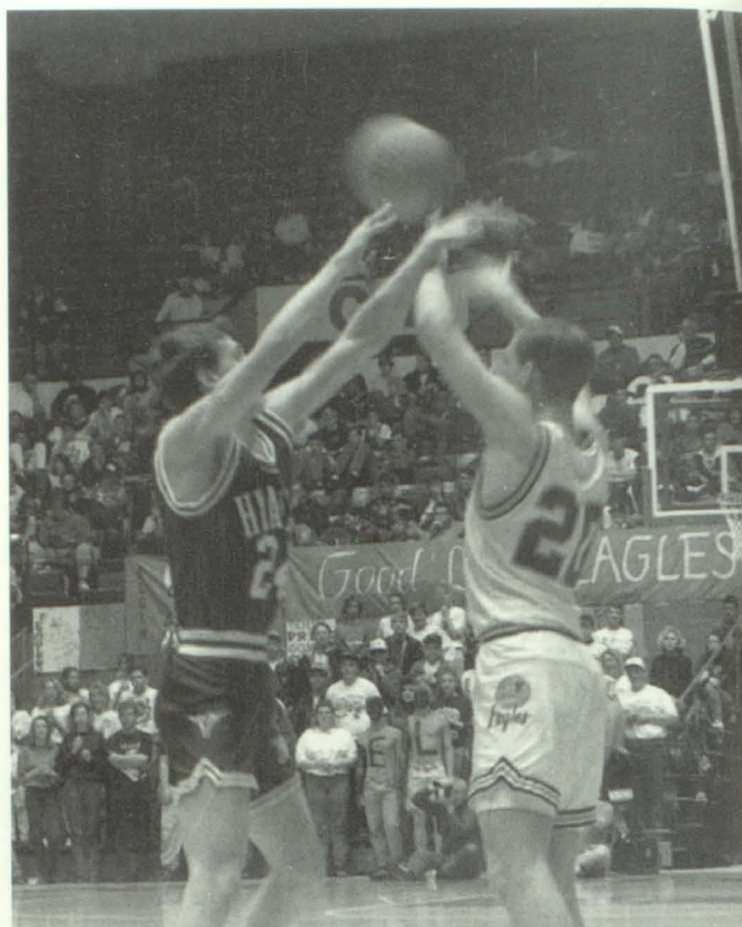

1. Randy going for the takedown at the state tournament. 2. Randy trying to turn his opponent. 3. Ethan gets a snack before his next match. 4. Ryan gets congratulated after his win at the Hyannis Invite.

HHS Basketball State Runner-up

By Richard Evans

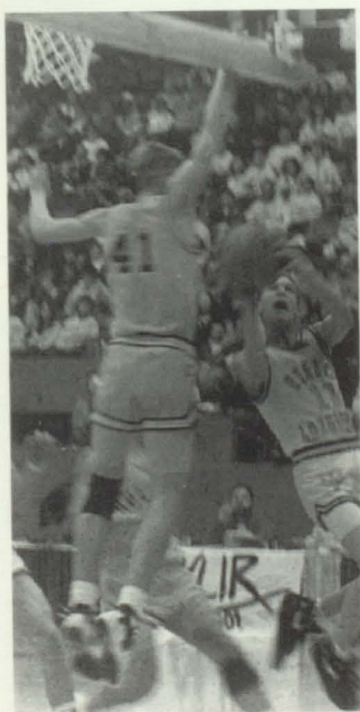

This was a very exciting year for the Longhorns basketball team. After losing their first game the Longhorns won twenty-one in a row and that was the second longest game winning streak only to class B state champions Wahoo that had twenty-five. It was one of the best season's ever. The boys won the Sandhills and Oregon Trails Conference, Districts and were state runner-up after a very lucky shot from one of the Elign players. He hit a three point shot with two seconds left, leaving the Hyannis players and fans stunned. The Longhorns made history by making it to state because the last time that they made it was 1953 and also by making it to finals which the last time they made it was in 1927 when they won class P.

Girls Have Great Season!

By Justin Vinton

The 1992-1993 girls' basketball team got off to a fast start as they went into

Christmas vacation with a 5-0 record. They played it game by game with the motto: "It takes hard work to become champions." The girls' basketball team received many honors during the season including individual honors. Team honors were: third place in the O.T.C. Tournament, runner-up at Sandhills Conference and in the D2-8 Districts, and overall rated ninth in the Nebraska D2-8 ratings. The returning letter winners for the 1992-1993 season were as follows: Amy Simpson, Jeanne Sexson, Jodi Smith, Randi Sheets, and Rachel Meyers. Selections for the following are: All-

Area Honorable Mention — Amy Simpson, Jami Brennemann, Jennie Knott, and Jeanne Sexson; All State Academic — Amy Simpson, Jeanne Sexson; O.T.C. and Sandhills Conference — 1st team, Amy Simpson and Jami Brennemann; 2nd team, Jammie Vinton, Jennie Knott, Jeanne Sexson. This season the team had the most wins Hyannis Girls' Basketball Team has had in a single season (15-5), and the first time Hyannis has finished in the top 10 state rankings. Members of the 92-93 Girls' Basketball Team were: Seniors Jodi Smith, Lorena Chick; Juniors Amy Simpson, Jeanne Sexson; Sophomores Randi Sheets, Rachel Meyers, Stacy Donner; Freshmen Jennie Knott, Jennifer Haney, Jami Brennemann, Ann Cole, Rene Olson, Jessica Cady, Amber Leach, Heather Bruce; Student Managers Marisa Garner, Melissa Guerue; Coaches Bob Waltman, Vicki Parker.

New Coach and 10 Seventh Graders Join The Team

By Richard Evans

The junior high boys had a pretty good season finishing the record at 2-2. This year the junior high boys had a new coach Glen Eberspecher who brought new ideas to the program. They played Minatare for there first win of the season. Other teams they played were the Sandhills Conference area teams, Cody, Mullen, Thedford. There only other win came in a six-man game against Cody.

J. H. Girls Finish 4-3

By Richard Evans

Under coach Joy Brown the junior high girls had a 4-3 season. Even though the team was young they all got a good learning experience that will help them later down the road. There were six eighth graders out they were: Brenda Merrihew, Meagan Stillwell, Loucinda Bruce, Trish Kime, Sandra Fix and Tancy Fueller. Seventh graders out were: Sam Evans, Amy Hood, Tana Retzlaff, Janice O'Leary, Jennifer Burgess, Lindy Meyer, Tammy Stangle, Sara Adams, Valerie Kraus, and Bridget Leach.

ORGANIZATIONS

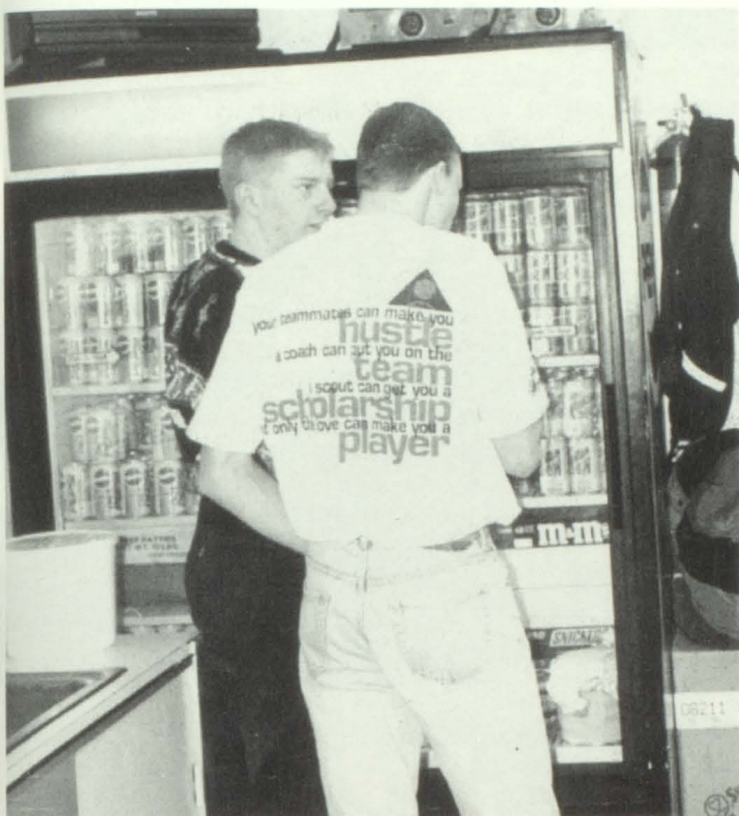

Working For Service And Leadership

*Copy by Bryon
Powles*

Hyannis High School has several organizations that are important to the students. Some of the organizations work hard hand in hand to keep things moving during the school year. This year all organizations and student body spent one day in the spring to clean up around the school and community. Service is always a part of any good organization and HHS groups are no exception.

HHS Band Has Full Year

The Hyannis High School Band with new director David Mead, entertained year round. They started the year off early marching in the Grant County fair parade. Then they competed marching in the Octoberfest at Sidney. Students and parents enjoyed the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The band also helped promote school spirit at basketball games with pep band.

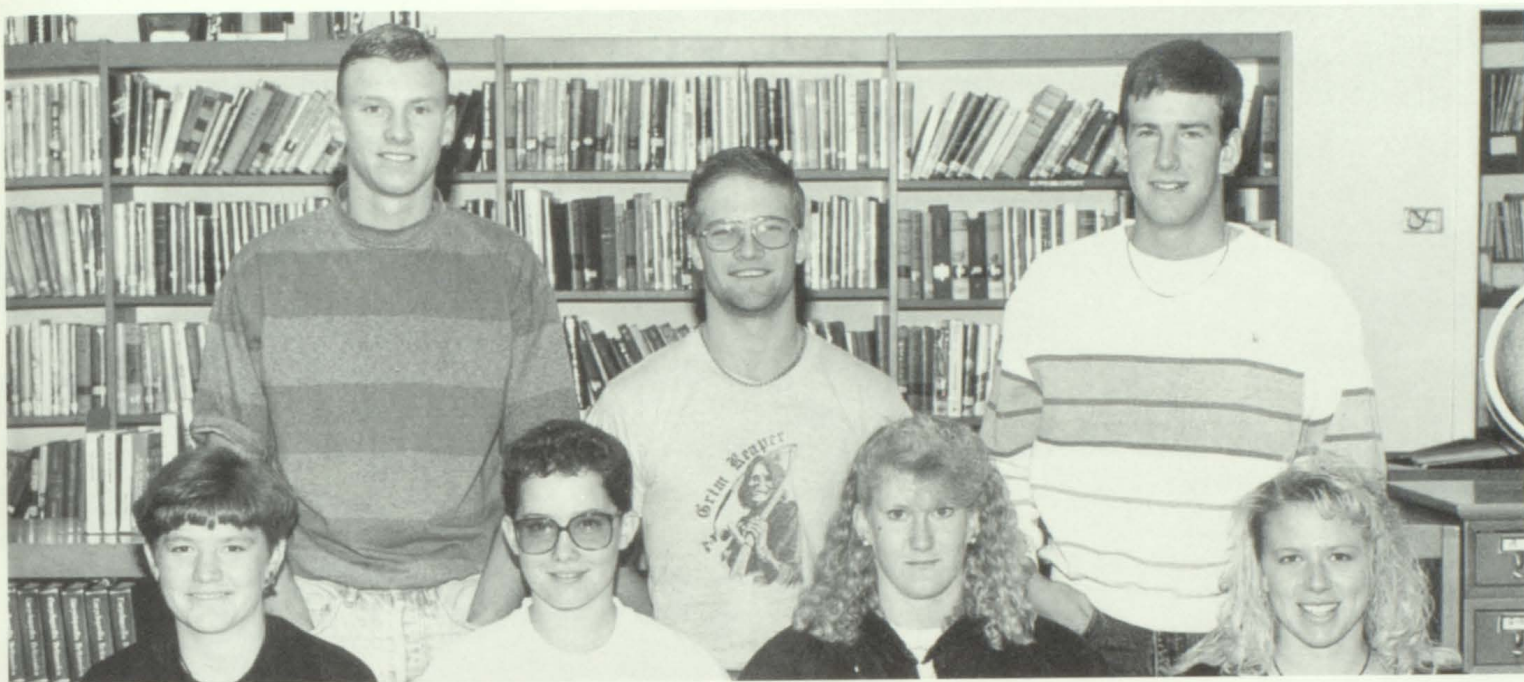

Students Hone Leadership Skills

The Student Council and Honor Society were led by faculty sponsors Cindy Keller and Marina Garner respectively. The organizations tried to develop some leadership skills through the planning of changing the dance policy in the school handbook and making the rest of the students aware of the need for community service. Led by the two organizations the students participated in a community clean up day and planted some trees on the school house lawn. The two groups hope to extend their role as leaders even further during the 1993-1994 school year.

FFA Has Another Successful Year

By Bryon Powles

The Hyannis FFA showed their power this year. The Hyannis FFA were able to attend National Convention due to the qualification for Nationals by last year's State Champion Sr. Livestock

Selection Team. Much leadership was gained and used during this trip. The team started a new project of raising fish this year. They also continued their tradition of selling fruit and also sausage and cheese combos. They had a donkey basketball game again this year as an extra fund-raiser. The Hyannis FFA travelled to many different contests and 11 members qualified for a trip to the State Convention in April.

FHA Keeps Busy

FHA members were busy with ways and means, service projects, and State events and meetings. They sold Christmas wrap and picked up trash, and attended a Cluster meeting in Omaha. They served a soup supper and a concession stand. Jodi

Smith, president went to State Convention with her Search/Star project. Other officers were Vice President, Lisa Brown; Secretary, Misty Anderson; Treasurer, Amanda Taulbee; StuCo, Marisa Garner; Power of One, Heather Bruce.

Freshmen Dominate

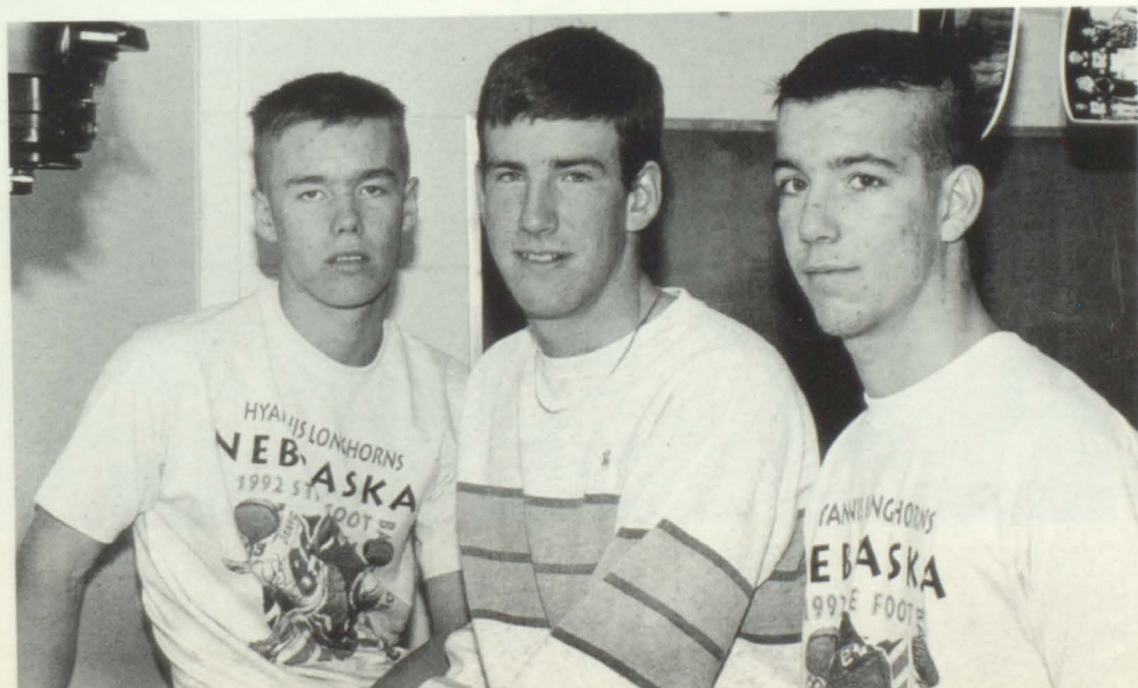

By Peter Schreurs

The Journalism class this year worked hard to put out a page each month in the Grant Co. News. This years staff was made up of mainly freshmen; Marisa Garner, Melissa Guerue, Lisa Brown, Rene Olson, Jennifer Haney, Jenni Knott, Tyler Kersenbrock, Jarvis Garner, Josh Guerue, and Justin Vinton.

Men at Work

This year's annual staff kept the tradition alive having an all boys staff. They were Randy Craig, Bryon Powles, Josh Guerue, Robert Evans, Richard Evans, Brad Daugherty, Josh Garner, Justin Vinton, Peter Schreurs and Charles Ferguson, Mrs. Garner was the advisor.

H-Club, HAFA Boys, Girls Athletics Have Successful Seasons

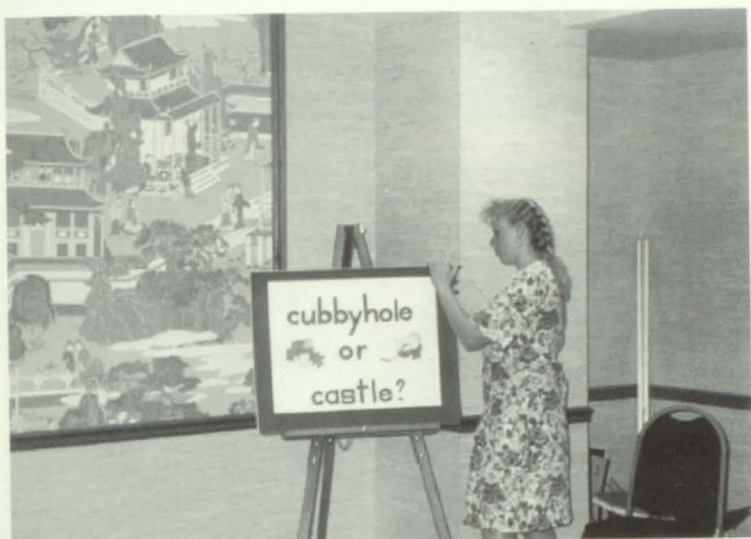

This year HAFA went to the Nebraska vs. Colorado game and also went to the volleyball game. They raised money working the concession stand during Oregon Trail Conference boys basketball games.

President, Jodi Smith; Vice-President, Amy Simpson, Secretary, Randi Sheets; Treasurer, Rachel Meyer; News Reporter, Lisa Brown; Student Council, Jeanne Sexson, other members;

Speaking is perhaps the most often used form of communication. Speech helps students overcome the fear of public speaking. Sophomores are the only class required to take the class but juniors and seniors can improve these skills by being part of the speech team. The speech team attended five meets this year. This years team consisted of mainly sophomores who gained experience for the later speech years!!

HHS drama students maintain a busy schedule. They had a new man in charge this year. His name was Mr. David Mead. His students worked very hard putting on plays and rehearsing. It takes a lot of commitment to go to play practice and get home really late.

Working Hard To Clean Up The Community

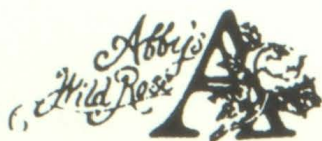

By Brad Daugherty

On the H.H.S community service day there was a lot accomplished by cleaning the community and both schools. The things done to clean up the High School was painting posts in front of the school, planted two trees in front of school, donated by Honor Society, trimmed the bushes in front of the school. One group of kids was assigned to go down to the football field, they painted the bleachers the shed below crow's nest, and they cleaned the shed by the restrooms.
