DEDICATION

Talk about dedication. Mr. Fisher has worked for 26 years as a counsler and teacher at Hyannis High School. He has helped many students through the years. The annual would like to dedicate this book to Mr. Fisher for all his hard work and dedication.

What's all the talk about? The talk was about many things this year. The talk was about the football team that made it to the state playoffs and the band that got a superior at Chadron band day. The talk included both the good and bad times. Spoken was the disappointment the girls felt when they lost in the district championship game. Spoken was the excitement of the boys basketball team winning their first game at state. The topics ranged from the speech teams runner-up placing at districts to which movie was playing in Alliance. The talk was of simple things like what one was wearing to the dance. The talk was also about the complicated things like trig problems and college decisions. There was a lot to talk about and we hope that this book will be a reminder of the good times and the bad so that you will never have to ask yourself, "What was all the talk about".

Sayin' it with a smile. A smile is the most direct form of communication. It can say "nice shot" or just "hello". It's seen in the halls going from friend to friend. This pictures worth a thousand words as friends Tyler Kersenbrock, Rebecca Simpson, Ann Cole, and Jami Vinton meet in the halls.

Let's Talk About Student Life

Students at HHS were kept busy this year with homework and their friends. If you ask the students at HHS what there is to do in this one horse town they would probably reply, "cruise". Now is that exciting or what? So as you might have guessed it, students crowd into cars after school and take a main, actually several mains. There's never a dull moment in the lives of students at HHS, if they get tired of cruising the same streets or just get tired of being in Hyannis they take a road trip to Alliance to grab a bite to eat and to take in the late show.

A GRAND TRADITION

Traditions that our parents have talked about we lived the week of homecoming. There was a traditional coronation, parade, and burning of the "H". The weeks activities also included "come as you are day", "punk rock day", "blue and white day", "dress like your favorite teacher day", and "crazy day". Students also decorated each others lockers. Football and volleyball games were played against Crawford. Following the football game the students council sponsored a dance. The royalty candidates were Manon Nederpal, Brad Daughtery, Amy Simpson, Justin Vinton, Michelle Livesay, and Josh Garner. The student body elected Vinton and Simpson as homecoming king and queen.

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown

Charlie Brown the world's most loveable, bedraggled and befuddled child seems to be a born loser.

Everything he touches goes bad and yet in the end everyone knows the truth.

This play consists of six main characters and eight chorus members.

Charlie Brown: Mike Botts, Lucy: Lucinda Bruce, Linus: Misty Anderson, Snoopy: Amanda Stillwell, Schroeder: Daniel Dyer, and Patty: Marisa Garner.

Chorus members were: Stacy Donner, Heather Bruce, Megan Stillwell, Mindi Szackacs, Jessica Cady, Carrie Ravenscroft, Jodi Younkin, and Corey Evans.

CANDIDS

Valerie, what are you looking at? Kori enjoys a dip in the pool during Kansas City Band Trip with classmates. Sweet-heart Royalty — Queen Michelle Livesay and King Brad Daugherty.

Randi shampooing Starr Baxter's hair with a little shaving cream. Daffy and Bugs guarding the pop. Robbie picking out his prize.

WHAT'S UP DOC? This years after prom party was a little looney, but everyone enjoyed the games, food, and prizes. The nights activities included a bubble gum blowing contest, a hoola hoop contest, adn a shaving cream hairstyling event. As a friend would say, "That's all folks."

PROM '94

By Amanda Stillwell

As every year goes, we all wait for the one night of the year when we can live a moment of glamour and ecstasy. Parents gather in the gym to "ooo" and "ah" at everyone, take those last minute pictures, and for the coronation. All thanks should go to the Junior Class and their sponsor Mrs. Stillwell, because though the night must come to an end, the memories won't. To all of the Seniors, it will be odd without you next year. The message of Prom '94 is that we'll "Miss You In A Heartbeat." The Prom Royalty was Queen; Jeanne Sexson, King; Josh Garner, and attendants were Lisa Brown and Ryan McCune.

MISS YOU IN A HEARTBEAT

Graduation '94

By Michelle Livesay

Outa Here

A lot happened during the 1993 — 1994 school year. A lot for the seniors to remember about their graduation year.

- * The Dallas Cowboys won the Superbowl for the second year in a row
- * Former President Nixon died after suffering a stroke
- * Figure skater Nancy Kerigan was attacked
- * Speed skater Bonnie Blair won her fourth gold medal in the Olympics; while Dan Janssen won his first
- * Michael Jordan retired from basketball and began to play baseball for a minor league team
- * NAFTA was adopted and it opened trade between the US, Mexico, and Canada

Even with all of these events the thing that '94 seniors will remember most about 1994 is that it was the year they graduated and went their separate ways. Some went to Doane or Scottsbluff or Chadron. All had plans for the future, all dreaming. Who knows what they'll do!

Ann, Carrie, and Randi showing us their stuff during the rodeos this year.

Rodeo, where the old West talk comes alive in a new way. Roundups and cattle drives demanded special skills in the old West and still do. The rodeo carries on the tradition. Rodeo Club isn't all about riding broncs and wrestling steers. They also had a trash cleanup and sold brand ads. They hosted the high school rodeo.

Randi and Carrie made the State Finals in Broken Bow.

If one has to sum up the people of Hyannis, one must use words like diverse, easy going, and fun. There was plenty to talk about this school year, always something going on at Hyannis High School. The school was not the building, though it was the people, and the talk was not about the building but about the people of Hyannis High, who made this such a great year.

Faculty

By Marisa Garner

With hard work and dedication the H.H.S. faculty went a long way this year. If it wasn't for the constant reminders of how important notes, homework, and of course the tests, the H.H.S. students probably wouldn't be where they are today. The teachers helped students as much as possible by giving them a little extra help, showing school spirit, and sponsoring our school dances.

This year we had six dedicated cheerleaders and one mascot. The sponsor was Deb Eberspecher. Our cheerleaders included: Rachel Meyer, Jennie Knott, Ann Cole, Amanda Stillwell, Marisa Garner, and Megan Stillwell, and our mascot was Jessica Gady.

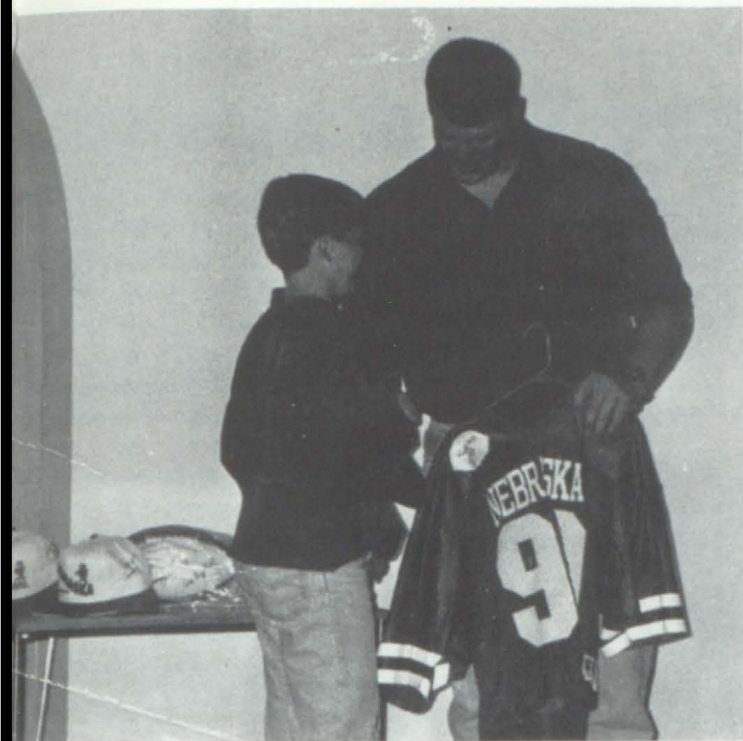

Our girls traveled constantly chasing after our teams. From football to volleyball, basketball, and wrestling they somehow kept the spirit up!!

A special "thanks" to all of the team members from the cheerleaders for a great year to cheer!!

The boys basketball team travelled to State, the girls basketball team broke records, the wrestlers worked hard and the track team sent several to Omaha; all things talked about at the Athletic Banquet. The banquet started with a potluck and then the athletes were honored for their hard work and dedication. The guest speaker talked about the importance of an education and telling us to work hard and our dreams are possible.

Team Makes Third Straight

Hyannis football team returned from an 8-2 record last year to have a 7-3 record this year. Hyannis had only 3 returning starters, Jeff Kraus, Josh Garner, and Justin Vinton, but players stepped forward. A lot of the players had playing time last year and were ready to take on the responsibility this year. The Longhorns played tough and again made it to playoffs. Justin, "I think that we had a great team, no I mean one heck of a team. Everyone worked hard and gave what it takes to have a good team. It was the best team I have played on. Everybody was a lot of fun."

Coach Kraus, "The best way to describe our football team this year, is to say they were a group of over achievers. We weren't given much respect by anyone before the season but we qualified for the Nebraska State Playoffs for the 3rd consecutive year. In every game we gave up a lot of size man for man but somehow our kids found a way to get done, what needed to be done. This was one of the most fun groups of kids that I have been associated with, and it was due largely to the leadership of our Juniors and Seniors that made it possible. Thanks for the great season."

The girls volleyball team had very high hopes for the season. They had a lot of fun with the new head coach Glen Everspecher and new assistant coach Jody Anderson. Both of the coaches showed patience and added a lot of fun.

Even with a 6-10 record, the girls hope to better themselves next year and are looking forward to it. Amy Simpson made 1st team in the Sandhills Conference and OTC Conference. Jami Brennemann received 2nd team in both conferences and Jennie Knott received honorable mention in both conferences.

By Brad Daugherty

The boys basketball team was astonishing this year. The team showed a lot of heart, poise and dedication. They proved to a lot of people that height isn't everything. Everyone played as a team not as individuals. The boys won Sandhills conference and O.T.C., then went on to win Sub-Districts and became D 1-7 District Champs! This year the boys team was undefeated in regular season. They are the first Longhorn team to do that. Qualifying for state two years in a row is a first time accomplishment for a Longhorn team. The Longhorns played the Winnebago Indians in the first round of the State Tournament. They won their first game at State against the Winnebago Indians, but lost in the second round to the Humphrey St. Francis Flyers. The great number of fans at all of their games was highly appreciated by the team.

The Lady Longhorns got off to a great start, leaving for Christmas vacation with a 4-0 record. As the season progressed they continued to work hard and improve their skills. At Sandhills Conference they fell a little short placing second to Thedford. The Longhorns looked forward to the OTC Tournament. After drawing a bye the Longhorns raced forward as champions. As OTC champions they looked ahead to a tough subdistricts meeting Mullen for the fourth time. After defeating Mullen they went to Hershey for Districts. They met with Eustis-Farnam for the toughest game of the year. Although the Lady Longhorns came up short they ended the season with a good 14-4 record. While the girls didn't come up on the winning side of the districts they achieved many goals and broke some records that include the most points scored in a game. This record was broken with a victory over Cody-Kilgore. Jami Brennemann averaged 17 points a game this season, grabbed 7 rebounds and and, as the season unfolded, the team's record improved. Starting as the underdog, the team finished the season with a record of 10-2. The team's success was due to a combination of factors, including the team's hard work and dedication, as well as the coaching of Coach [Name]. The team's success was a testament to their hard work and dedication.

The junior high boys basketball team went undefeated this year defeating Cody-Kilgore, Thedford, Mullen, and Arthur and winning the Sandhills Conference. Coach Kraus said, "I was very pleased with the effort and attitude of our 7th and 8th grade basketball team this year. I believe this group can accomplish great things in the future if they continue to do the things that have brought them to this point."

The junior high girls' new basketball coach, Jodi Anderson said, "I think the girls gained a lot of experience and I hope to have an even better season next year." It's kind of hard to have a better season when a team goes undefeated and won the Sandhills Conference plaque. Our of 29 girls in junior high 26 girls went out for basketball and 2 were student managers.

The junior high "Mat Men" are becoming very experienced. Eight of the thirteen boys that are out for wrestling were eighth graders and went out the year before. Chet O'Shea an eighth grader has also participated in federation wrestling. Among the five of the seventh graders Justin Boots is also involved in federation. Coach Glen Everspecher says, "They're as good as they can want. Some of them have a lot of heart." The Mat Men took part in three meets, a duel at Mullen, a quad in Hyannis, and a tournament in Mullen. Eberspecher also feels, Wrestling shows so much more of their individual ability.

The junior high track team was coached by Bob Waltman and Glen Eberspecher. There were 36 students on the team. They participated in track meets at Wallace, Lewellen, Sandhills Conference at Thedford, the Thedford Invite and the Oregon Trails Conference at Ogallala. They always brought home the gold with many tracksters placing in their events.

The Hyannis FHA chapter kept quite busy. Along with their annual QSP Christmas sales, their soup supper, and cake raffle they took on two other projects. They held a pizza feed and a community service project, landscaping the front of the Medical Center. The FHA'ers also attended their district meeting and competed in Search/Star events. The officers attended the State Leadership Conference in Lincoln.

Fishin' Around

Say what? Sell fruit, attend meetings, raise fish, and judge livestock, all in the same year? Yes, that is what the FFA did this year and more. They worked very hard picking up cans, selling fish, and working concessions to raise money to send people to Washington DC for a national convention. The years activities started in August when they set up pens at the fairgrounds. They kept busy attending contests all year. The chapter sent many to state in areas ranging from livestock judging to speeches.

"Don't you love the common words
In usage all the time
Words that paint a masterpiece,
Words that beat a rhyme.

Words that sing a mel-

What's there to say? Here's the annual. It was an interesting year as the annual class tried to cover a whole year in one semester, but we think we've captured the memories and the important events of this much talked about year. The newspaper class also worked hard to publish a newspaper each month. They printed a final edition called "Students in Print". This was the second year for "Student's in Print" and they hope it will become an annual edition with more interest from the students. Both classes would like to thank everyone for their help with pictures. (Grant County News, Cameon Ravenscroft, and Sharon Brennemann)

HAFA gained many new members this year. In March the club took a trip to Lincoln to watch the girls state basketball tournament.

HAFA officers were: Amy Simpson-President, Randi Sheets-Vice President, Marisa Garner-Secretary, Jennie Knott-Treasurer, and Ann Cole-Student Council.

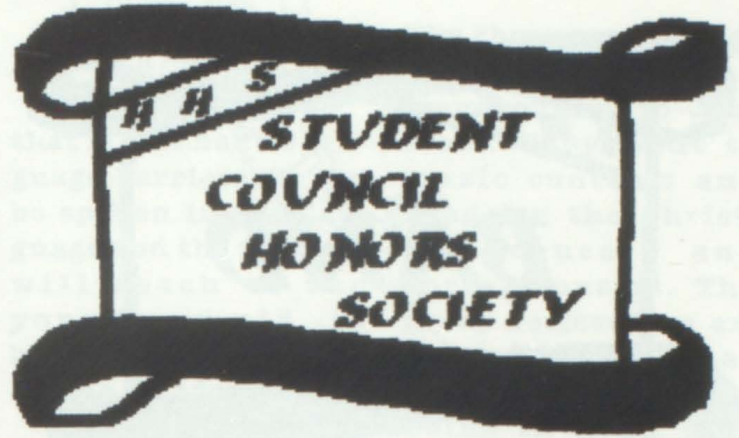

H-Club had a very successful year. They held the concession stands for the high school wrestling tournament held in Hyan-nis. Coach Glen Eberspecher was their sponsor for the year. At the end of the year the boys took a swimming trip to Evans Plunge.

Members were: Ryan McCune, Charles Ferguson, Peter Schreurs, Jeff Kraus, Gabe Huffman, Daniel Dyer, Josh Garner, Brad Daugherty, Justin Vinton, Travis Hansen, and Ryan Sexson.

Energetic and full of spirit, best describes the HHS band. Besides playing in two school concerts and three music contests, they played for home games and went to Worlds of Fun. Worlds of Fun was said to be loads of fun. The talk was of the Orient Express, the Timberwolf, and which sovenier to buy.

CHORUS

Give 'em a hand -

that music had no language barriers. It can be spoken in any language and the feelings will reach to the young and old, to black and white. Music is a wonderful gift.

The chorus sang songs this year ranging from country to classical. They went to music contests and sang for the Christmas concert and spring concert. The group received an excellent rating at Chadron's music days. Being in choir does not usually require homework, but it does require thought. Students learned how to use their voices to create music. They learned how good music can sound when the sopranos, altos, tenors, and bass work together as one voice. A person once said

Honors Convocation

Highest Class Averages: Seventh Grade - Cindy Donner; Eighth Grade — Tana Retzlaff; Ninth Grade — Megan Stillwell; Tenth Grade — Misty Anderson; Eleventh - Jeff Kraus; Twelfth — Amy Simpson. The highest overall average was presented to Tana Retzlaff and the secon highest overall average was presented to Misty Anderson. Presidential Academic Fitness Awards were presented to Jim Burgess, Valerie Kraus, Tana Retzlaff, and Jodi Younkin. Attendance Awards were presented to Lorrie Dawson, Mark Ogren, A.J. Abbott, Tana Retzlaff, Josh Johnson, and Jeff Kraus.

Colophon

Talk was the main idea of the 1994 Longhorn, Volume 59. Taylor Publishing Company printed this 72 page book. The cover was done in black, purple, and glow-in-the-dark pink. The word "What's" was done in Muse Script and the words "All The Talk About!" were done in Kabel. All copy for the 1994 Longhorn was done in American Typewriter, 8 point size. Division pages used Muse Script and Kabel Bold in there designs. Trim size of the Longhorn was  $7 \frac{3}{4} \times 10 \frac{1}{2}$ . Photography was headed by Trish Kime. Section editors were Rebecca Simpson, Student Life; Brad Daugherty, Sports; Corey Evans, People; and Lisa Brown, Advertisement. Chief Editors were Michelle Livesay and Marisa Garner. This year's Longhorn is dedicated to Mr. Fisher who retired this year after twenty-six years of service. His years of dedication to Hyannis High School have helped many students, and he will be greatly missed at the school.
