Life is a Highway

Hyannis High School
"The 1996 Longhorn"
Hyannis, NE 69350

Hyannis High School's Road of Life

Copy by Jarvis Garner & Jon Louden
Layout by Kryn Kostman

The year seemed to start off slow. The seniors could be seen walking to class and the new recruits could be seen still trying to get their combinations to work. As you walk down these halls of yellow paint strung with lockers and an occasional classroom you find a worn out carpet caused by other travelers who have walked this same path before.

Hyannis High School has seen many classes graduate and travel the highway of life, but never before has it seen a class like the one that graduated in 1996. Friendships were constructed here that no one will soon forget and friendships will break here that can never be repaired. Life is a highway and we are all passengers.

Student Life

Life Beyond and Within the Walls of HHS

By Marisa Garner

From raising money for prom to caps and gowns students spent many hours working on ways and means projects. Some did find time for outside activities as did the students who participated in the Doniphan Trap Shoot in early May. Still others found time to get together in the hall and pose for a picture.

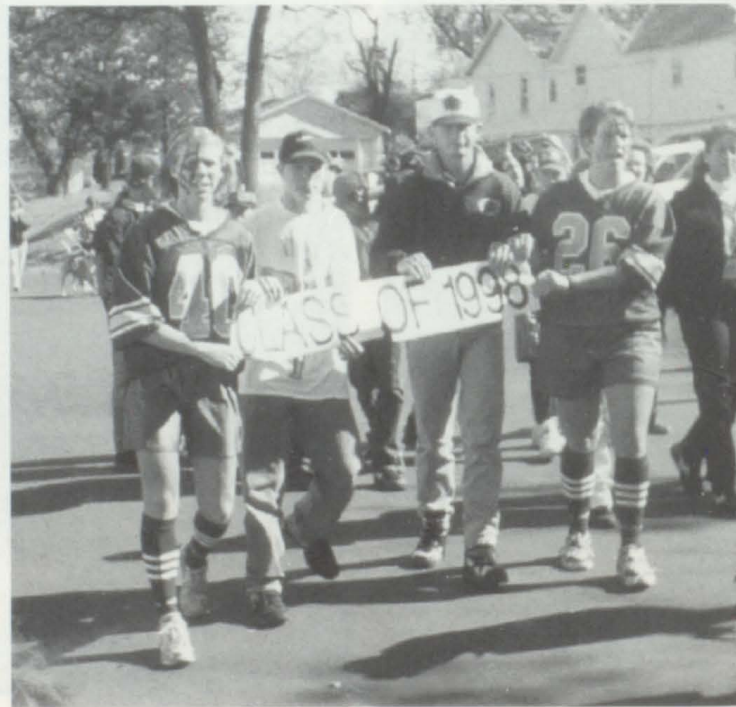

Homecoming—1995

Shows School Spirit

By Marisa Garner

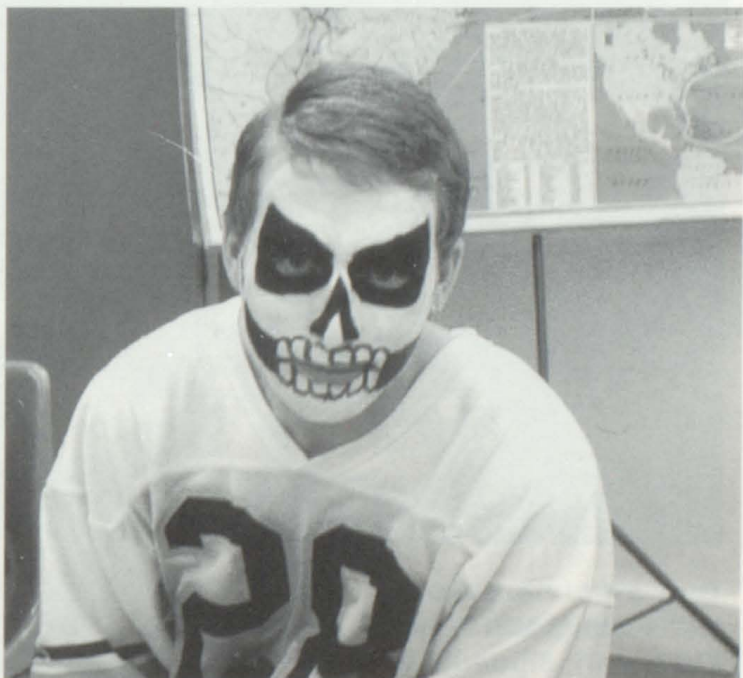

H o m e c o m i n g—1995! Homecoming week filled Hyannis High School with spirit and enthusiasm. Students participated in Monster Day, 70's Day, Backwards Day, Old West Day and Blue/White Candy Day. They also decorated lockers. On Thursday there was a pizza feed, and coronation in the lecture hall. Cody Kostman and Jami Bren-nemann were crowned 1995 King and Queen. The attendants were Ann Cole, Jennie Knott, Willie Craig and Ryan Sexson. Then it was down to the field for the bon fire and pep rally. The band and the spirit squad performed. On Friday, the students had shortened class periods and had a parade and pep rally on main street.

A Walk In The Park

By Kryn Kostman

Many Hyannis High School students stopped along life's highway to take a "Walk in the Park" for a night filled with beauty and glamour on April 20, the 1996 prom. To begin the evening, faculty members, juniors, seniors, and their dates gathered in the commons area for supper. Following the supper Trish Kime and Larry Pilkington read the prophecies and Cody Kostman and Rene Olson read the wills with a few laughs now and then. Then it was time for a night full of dancing. The 1996 prom queen and king were first crowned by Stacy Donner. Jennie Knott was crowned queen and Willie Craig king. Their attendants were Jennifer Haney, Amanda Stillwell, Jarvis Garner, and Tyler Kersenbrock.

Tropical Blitz!

By Kryn Kostman

Following a night full of glamour the students headed to the Winters Building for a night or should we say morning of fun and games. The theme of the 1996 after prom party was, "Tropical Blitz!" Among the many games were ring toss, blinko, the penny toss, black jack, and dart throwing. Students also enjoyed singing to some of their favorite tunes with karyoke being a big attraction.

Class Of 1996 Graduates!

by: Dezarae Dredla

On May 12, 1996 students faculty, many friends and family sent the class of 1996 off into the real world.

Tears fell from many joyful faces as diplomas and scholarships were received by many happy seniors. The senior class choir members sang their last song as students of Hyannis High School. Misty Anderson gave her final farewells as Valedictorian along with Salutatorian, Tami Buchta.

Friends were established at Hyannis High School and friends will depart, but still, friends will remain here. There were many differences among the class of '96 and yet they managed to build friendships.

Stop For People

By Rene Olson

As each year comes and goes, this one has come and gone. But each year brings special moments and opportunities to each student. The seniors who have gotten used to the same pattern for four years, had to think about what way the future was taking them. The juniors reached their first year as being upperclassmen and faced the complex decisions of prom. As for the sophomores, they've gotten one year under their feet and the freshmen held feelings of fear and excitement as they became high schoolers. Throughout the year, the students of HHS found out that "Life is a Highway Under Construction."

Small But Loud

Copy: Junior Class

The class of 1997 is like a big family. We have gained a lot of neat and interesting people that have added not only size, but colorful personalities to our class. We had our differences, but we still remained friends through everything that happened between us. We had reached our goal of 15 students when Mindy Exley joined our class in October, but fell back to 14 after Bob Fox moved to Martin, SD. We labored through the week and came together on the weekends for our own fun filled extra-curricular activities. We are the smallest class, therefore we have to make up for it by talking and we were always getting into trouble with the teachers. We all had different interests from sports to rodeo, from Lynard Skynard to Clay Walker, but we all shared the common interest of curiosity. One more year left and we're going to make sure our last year is our best year. For this reason the Class of 1997 will not be forgotten.

Route '98' Copy By Sophomores

Life is a highway and this year is the first time it will be driven by the class of 1998. From headbanging at school dances, to winning the Homecoming parade for the fourth year in a row, Hyannis High School will always remember the class of '98.

"Time goes by, The young get old, And the old, They die. But friends are forever, A class of friends you are. If I could make a wish, On the ringed rock or the shooting star, It'd be to be one of you. Hand in hand we live the life. You and me, we face the strife. Few we are, yet strong we be, We are sophomores, you and me."

We've only just begun! We are a class of strong-willed, talented, and sometimes obnoxious people. Personality is the main statement this year. Now that we have entered high school you can bet that Hyannis is exploding with enthusiasm. There is a lot of work to do and we intend to stay three more years to get it done right.

Easy Going Eighth Graders

Copy: Class of 2000

Our class was funny and easy going. We felt that we got a long and worked well together. We enjoyed being at the top of the ladder this year even though we'll fall to the bottom next year, WE WILL CLIMB AGAIN. We gained 4 people since last year bringing our class size to 24. Our class has a lot of talent both academically and athletically though we may be wild at times. We Define Loud — Class of 2000!

When asked to describe ourselves we said: exploding, hungry, humorous, abnormal, conquering, Foxworthy fans, all talk, no work, confused, and wild. We spent most of our classtime trying to get teachers off the subject; from Mr. Dyer's snake stories to Mrs. Garner's Antioch stories; from Mrs. DeLisle's facts about Mrs. Garner to Mr. McCray's Wyoming hunting stories. Most of the time we succeeded.

Administration

By Jarvis Garner

The administration had brought many educational tools to the school this year such as new apple computers. Ron Kelton the superintendent for two years has done a good job of bringing these tools into the school. Principal Walt Dyer has been here for 19 years and principal for 12 of those 19 years. He has done a great job of keeping the school in order and harassing the kids.

Support Staff

By Jarvis Garner

The support staff worked hard this year to keep the school running. The cooks Jo Davis, Bev Ellis, and Marjorie Rice worked hard to give us a great meal, that was worthy of seconds. The janitors, Charles Evans and Norma Sexson, worked extra hard to keep the school clean and in tip top shape.

Sandy Yorges, the school secretary kept the office running smoothly.

HHS Faculty

by Clark McCune

The 1995-96 faculty once again exceeded all expectations. They pushed the students to new heights, showed real school spirit and sponsored all of our school activities. Their attempts to keep classroom order has all but failed again, but at least they try. New faces included Casey Brown and Susan Kelton. Mr. Anderson taught geometry, algebra 1, physics, chemistry, clarisworks and auto cad/ mechanical drawing. Casey Brown taught Title 1. Mrs. Brown taught earth science, biology 10, science 7 and 8, and advanced biology. Mrs. Delisle taught geography and special education. Mr. Dyer taught Algebra 1 and 2, math 7, and applied math. Mr. Dempsey taught psychology/sociology, American government, American history, world history and art. Mrs. Garner taught English 7, 8 and 11, speech 10, annual and journalism. Mrs. Keller taught advanced math, keyboarding and Accounting 1, 2 and 3. Mrs. Kelton taught English 9, and Title 1. Mr. Kraus taught math, health, drivers education and physical education. Mr. McCray taught woodworking, animal science/feeds, Ag 1 and 2, power mechanics and livestock/range. Mr. Mead taught music theory, junior high music, band, and drama. Mrs. Morrell taught human relations, consumer math, careers, and home economics. Mr. Waltman taught Nebraska history, American government and guidance counseling.

Academics Play Major Role in Students' Lives

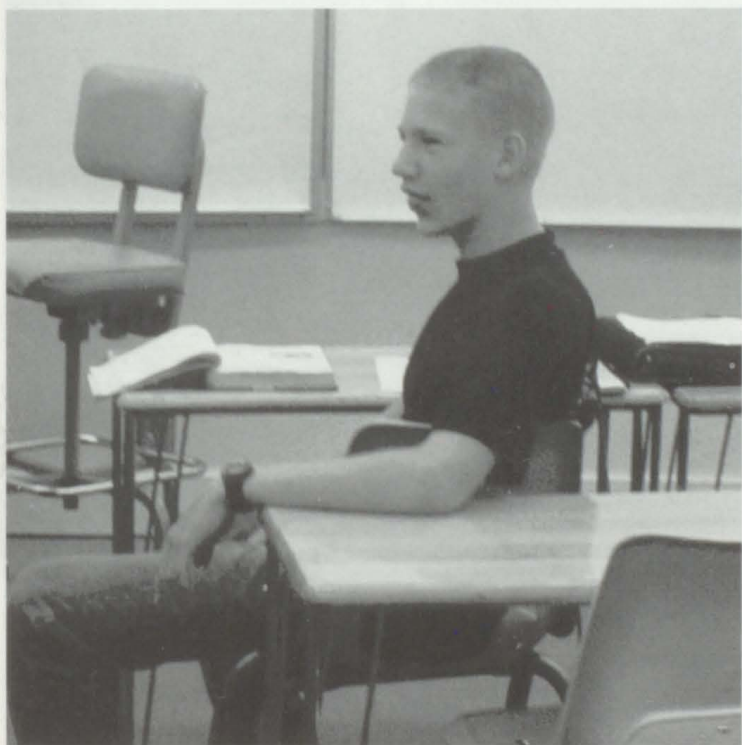

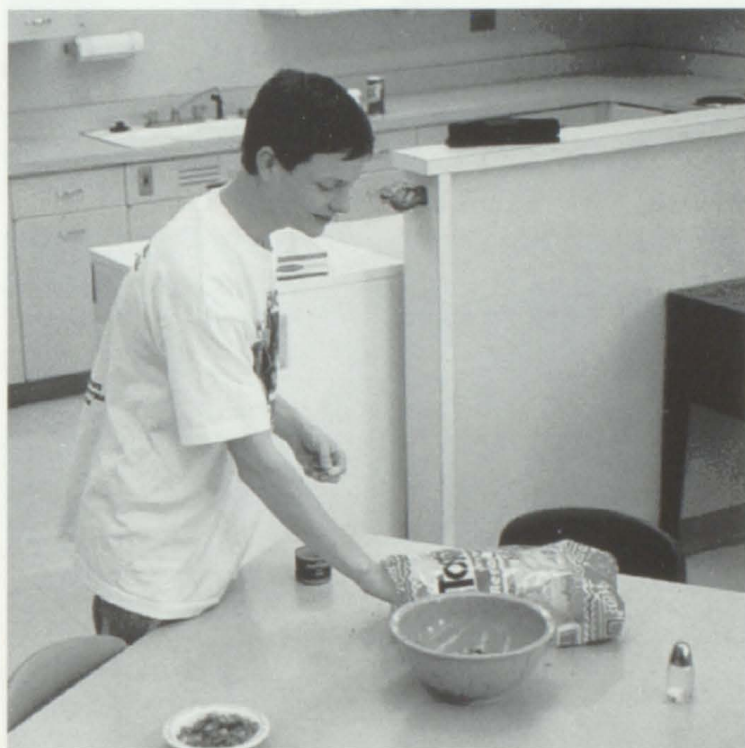

Quiz Bowl and Scholastic Contests were once again top academic events for students during the year. The students did very well. Academic Decathlon was a new event for the students this year, and they really excelled. They won their division in the regional contest earning them a spot at the State Contest in February. The pictures show that not only were they ready to have fun, but they worked hard.

Longhorns Enjoy Successful Athletic Seasons

By Tyler Kersenbrock

The 1995-96 athletic year was another great success for all our teams. The fall sports season was interesting with the football team falling short record wise but not in heart and the volleyball team enjoying the best season in years under their new coach, Chris Kraus. The winter sports season proved to be even more exciting with the girls going undefeated through regular season only to fall short in the District championship. The boys however stumbled late in the season but regained their composure late to qualify for state for the third time in four years. Chet O'Shea was the first wrestler in four years to qualify for state wrestling from Hyannis.

Volleyball Goes Under Reconstruction

By Kryn Kostman

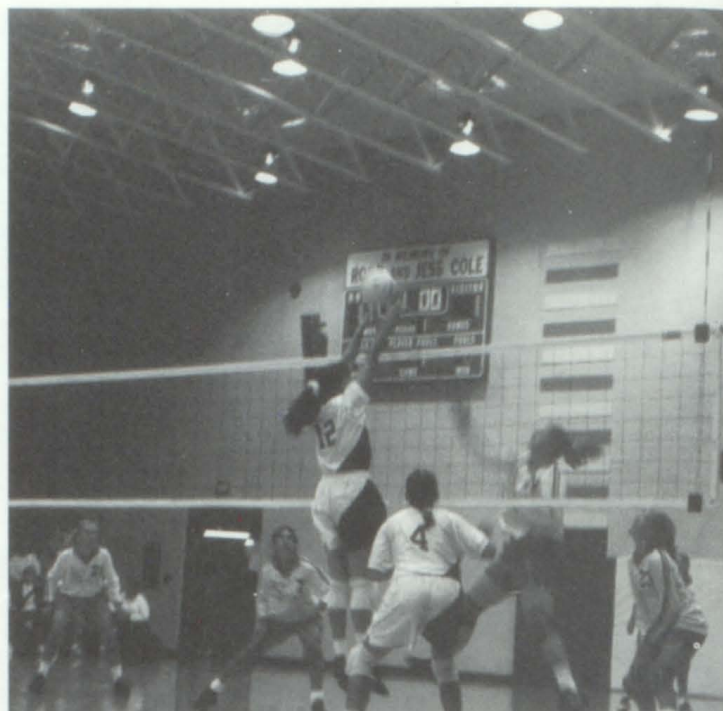

The Hyannis Volleyball team finished the season 14-3 for the 1995 volleyball season.

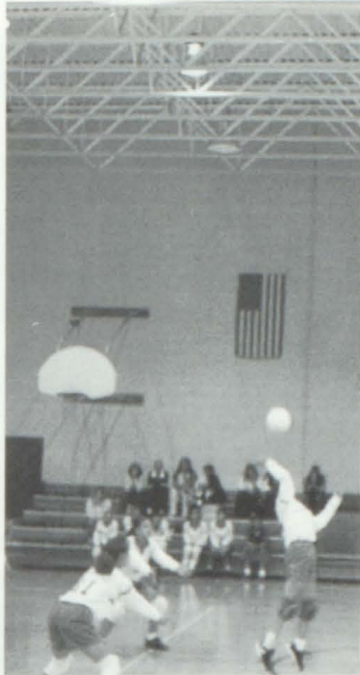

The '95 volleyball team underwent many changes this season. Just a few were two new coaches, Coach Chris Kraus and Assistant Coach, Casey Brown. Plus, they learned a whole new offense. The team consisted of 25 members. They were, seniors: Jami Brennemann, Jennie Knott, Amanda Stillwell, Ann Cole, and Rebecca Simpson; juniors: Megan Stillwell and Brenda Merrihew; Sophomores: Valerie Kraus, Kryn Kostman, Lindi Meyer, Sam Evans, Jennifer Burgess, Tana Retzlaff, Janice O'Leary, Sara Adam, and Cindy Leisy; freshmen: Beth Ferguson, Kori Brennemann, Alicia Abbott, Dezarae Dredla, Michele Keller, Jennifer Standage, Kelly Burgess, Tiffany Schroder, and Cindy Donner.

The varsity team had many accomplishments this year. This was the first year to ever win both O.T.C. and Sandhills. Plus first time in at least six years to defeat their long time rivals, the Thedford Trojans. By looking at the teams record one might assume they had a great season over all.

Young Longhorns Travel Rocky Road

By Jon Louden

This year's team showed a lot of heart as they went 0-7 on the season. The year was especially hard on the upperclassmen since it was the first time in 4 years that Hyannis could not secure a playoff birth.

Even though the season was less than spectacular it was not without its highlights. Cody Kostman led the area in 8-man passing with 830 yards in the regular season. His favorite target was Willie Craig. Craig ended the year in the top 5 in the area in receptions. Kostman's support squad showed the ability to step up and showed much potential. They plan to make Hyannis the team to watch in the future.

Lady Longhorns Steam Roll

Opponents

By Kryn Kostman

The Lady Longhorns had a great season finishing with a 17-1 record, their only loss being to Callaway in the District Championship. Hyannis out did their opponents by scoring 1125 points and their opponents only scoring 570. Also, they aggressively went after the ball coming up with 708 rebounds and 324 steals while their opponents only had 424 rebounds and 218 steals. The 1996 basketball team was dominated by four seniors. They were assisted by six sophomores and four freshmen. They had many great accomplishments this season. They are the only HHS girls basketball team to finish the regular season undefeated and to win back-to-back Sandhills and Oregon Trails Conferences. One outstanding moment for the season was Jami Brennemann's highest scoring game with 33 points. Brennemann led the team in scoring for the whole season with 346 points. She also led in rebounds with 192 and steals with 63. Jammie Vinton led the season in assists with 56.

Tourney Bound!

By Tyler Kersenbrock

The Hyannis Boys Basketball team completed another stellar season with an overall record of 17-3 and another trip to Lincoln. The Longhorns qualified for the state tournament for the third time in four years and extended the seniors career records to 76-8, setting an incredible standard for the younger classes to try and beat.

Heading into this season players, coaches, and fans all had their doubts about this year's team but through great leadership and desire the seniors and underclassman came through with another exciting season of big blow-outs and close nail-biters.

High School Wrestling

by: Jarvis Garner

The wrestling team grew a little in size this year with five wrestlers. Chet O'Shea placed fourth in districts qualifying him for the state tournament. The Longhorns were coached by Ben Dempsey who was happy to see a small increase in the size of the team. The records of the wrestlers were as follows. Ryan Foreman 0-12, Nathan Morris 7-11, Chet O'Shea 9-12, Justin Boots 1-13, Rocky Holms 0-12.

Track Members Take Trip To State

By Kryn Kostman

The Hyannis High School track team took six students to state this year they are Jami Brenemann in shot and disc, Lindi Meyer in the 300m low hurdles, Sam Evans in the 400m dash, and Michele Keller in the long jump and triple jump. Also, the 4x100 relay team qualified. Members of the relay team are Sam Evans, Lindi Meyer, Megan Stillwell, and Valerie Kraus. This years track teams were very successful with the girls winning Oregon Trails Conference and districts. The boys also won Oregon Trails.

Girls Go 3 and 5

By Dezarae Dredla

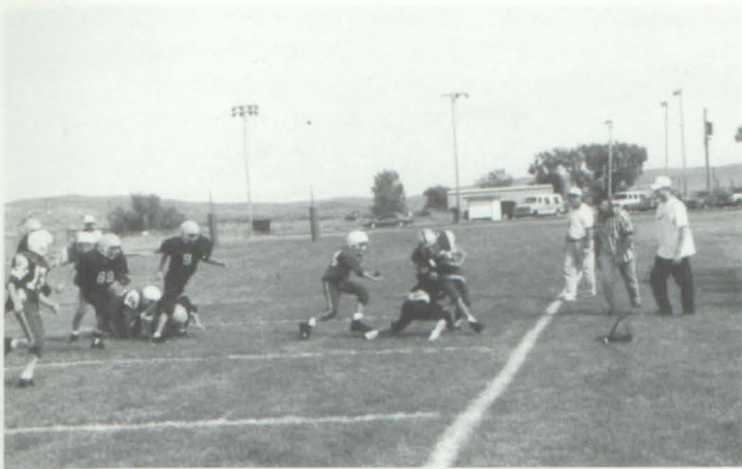

The junior high girls ended their volleyball season with a 3-5 record. The girls took third place in both the Jr. High Invite and Sandhills Tourney. There were 10 girls out for volleyball this year. Katie Johnson, Maisie Garner, Gina Stuke, Dana Brown, Jessica Standage, and Karen Ferguson, Kayla Coons, Kim Ravenscroft, Chelsie Wilson, and Lara Dailey.

Undefeated Season!!

By Tyler Kersenbrock

"What fall sports team completed the season undefeated? The junior high football team went 3-0 with sound defeats over Minatare, Mullen, and Thedford. Throughout the season they worked hard and showed a lot of improvement. Eighth graders showed good leadership and will make an impact in high school football next year. The seventh graders, showed a lot of athletic ability and leadership as well. And for their first year of playing contact football, they looked pretty good. Coach Chris Kraus coached the young longhorns this season. "Great year and a lot of great kids", stated Kraus. He also added, "hopefully they will continue to improve throughout their remaining years at Hyannis"

Junior High Girls Finish 5-3

By Tyler Kersenbrock

The Jr. High girls coached by Chris Kraus and Scott Anderson completed another great season with a surprising 5-3 record. Nobody was really sure of what kind of girls team Hyannis would have this year but the girls proved they had big hearts, showed hard work all season and ended up with a winning record. The girls averaged 22 points per game while holding their opponents to only 16 points per contest. The young longhorns showed flashes of brilliance but there is still plenty of room for improvement. Coach Chris Kraus had this to say, "I was very happy with their progress throughout the year. They played hard all the time. These girls were definitely over achievers."

Jr. High Boys Construct Winning Season

By Tyler Kersenbrock

The Junior High boys basketball team completed another successful season under head coach Chris Kraus. The boys finished 7-1 with their only loss coming in the season opener to Mullen. Ten young longhorns regrouped and went on to finish the rest of the season undefeated including the Hyanis Booster Club Invite championship in a close one over Alliance St. Agnes. With this good group of kids Hyannis has a chance to continue their winning tradition on into the next century. Coach Kraus had this to say, "The kids showed great improvement the entire season and I was very satisfied with their and desire. Both seventh and eighth graders showed good leadership and ability. If they remember that the little things are the most important they will continue to be very successful in the future.

Jr. High Wrestling

by Dezarae Dredla

This year there were 15 Jr. High boys out for wrestling. They went to one meet placing 4th, one triangular, placing 2nd and one dual placing 1st. This year the boys were coached by Ben Dempsey. Dempsey says, "The team really expanded this year and they all have a lot of experience."

Spirit Squad

By Dezarae Dredla

The 1995-96 Cheerleading Squad consisted of six cheerleaders. They were; Dezarae Dredla, Kori Brennemann, Tana Retzlaff, Valerie Kraus, Megan Stillwell, and Ann Cole. This was the first year for Pom Squad. The members were Alicia Abbott, Beth Ferguson, Mysti Wilder, Brenda Merrihew, Amanda Stillwell, and Marisa Garner. They raised money by selling hotdogs and hamburgers at the street dance, snow cones at the fair, HHS Longhorn sweatshirts, and a sock hop. They held pep rallies throughout the year to encourage the teams.

Paving the Way to the Future

By Kryn Kostman

The organizations of HHS provided the students with the satisfaction of being part of a group. There are a variety of groups such as FHA, student council, H-Club, band, annual, and many more. The organizations help the students to prepare for the future and take part in activities they enjoy. Many of the organizations were able to have raised enough money to take a group trip.

Bottom left: Junior High Choir members. Bottom right: A few of the FFA members.

H-Club

By Jarvis Garner

H-Club had a great year. They came up with the great idea of a money raffle and that's where they got most of their money. They ran concession stands again this year to raise money for a trip they never actually took. Coach Chris Kraus was the sponsor and tried his best to keep the meetings in order.

HAFA

The HAFA had a great year this year and were able to raise enough money to go on a ski trip at Terry Peak. They had twenty members this year and eleven of them were seniors so they had great leadership. Their sponsor Joy Brown was there if this leadership failed.

Student Council

By Jon Louden

Every year the students in the council buy the crowns and gifts for Homecoming and they also plan the Homecoming events. The students also plan the annual Christmas party. Community Clean-up Day is organized by the council. If any new school students come in the year then a student council member shows them around and helps them out with all the confusing hallways at Hyannis. When the school has Cultural Arts programs one or two of the members usually introduce them to the audience. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Keller.

Honor Society

By Jon Louden

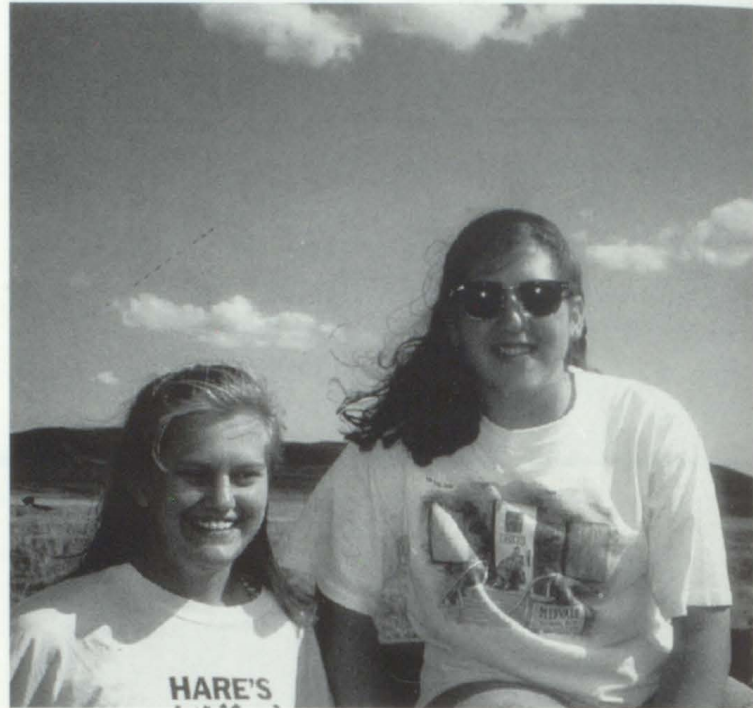

This year's Honor Society sold fire extinguishers and first-aid kits to raise money for scholarships. The members of the Society also helped the Quiz Bowl at Hyannis run smoothly. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Garner.

Future Farmers of America

By Kryn Kostman

The Hyannis High School FFA took part in many activities this year from judging meat to having two students, Michael Stillwell and Tammy Stangle, travel to Washington D.C. Again, the Hyannis FFA chapter was successful in their fruit sales and hope to continue the great tradition. Rob McCray advised the FFA students of HHS to carry out their chapters duties and prepare them for their agricultural future.

FLA Rolls On

Rene Olson

The Hyannis FLA worked on a variety of activities throughout the year. They did their usual trash pick-up along highway two, had a pancake feed and a few soup suppers. One of their biggest projects was the blood drive. They held the blood drive two times and it was a great success. Eight of the members also attended the National Cluster Meeting in Albuquerque, New Mexico this year. Officers this year were: President, Jennie Knott; Vice President, Jennifer Haney; Secretary, Marisa Garner; Treasurer, Rene Olson; and Parliamentarian, Ann Cole.

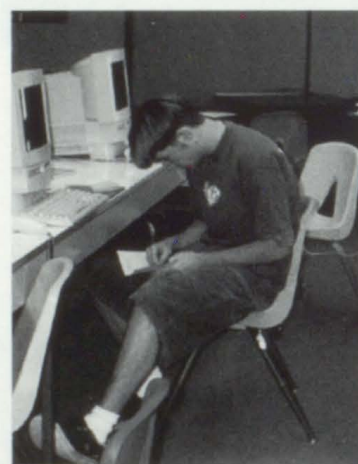

Seniors Steamroll Construction of Publications

By Jon Louden

This year was a successful year for the HHS publications crew. The annual staff dominated by seniors helped produce this year's annual under the watchful eye of our advisor Mrs. Garner. Kryn Kostman edited the our annual, The Longhorn. Staff members included Tyler Kersenbrock, Jarvis Garner, Clark McCune, Jon Louden, Rene' Olson, Marisa Garner, and Dezerae Dredla. 1st Semester members were Rebecca Simpson, Janice O'Leary, and Sara Stockall.

This year's journalism staff was also full of seniors. They led the staff concentration on designing a new font, and banner for the school newspaper, The Longhorn Spotlight. Mrs. Garner said that the staff put out a newspaper once a month, roughly nine in one year. It was not the same old concrete facts, but more features including yearly horoscopes and surveys of our school. Mrs. Garner felt that the paper did well to meet deadlines and students worked at improving their writing style.

Kryn Kostman was the Editor of the newspaper. Kostman said, "I think this year's paper has been really good. Being editor of The Spotlight has given me lots of good experience. I hope the paper will continue to be as good as it is, has, and hopefully we will be able to recruit more students to help out with it next year."

Band Hits The Road

By Jon Louden

Band hit the road this year as they traveled to Chadron to win the Class D Marching Band competition. Hyannis was one out of three schools to earn a superior which is the highest mark. They were also one of the top four in the parade in which all schools competed.

Mr. David Mead, Director, said, "I am very pleased with this years performance of the band. Our Christmas Concert was a real sucess despite the difficult literature that they performed." Mr. Mead also said that the band had adapted well to music that was new to them. He believes that '96' band was one of the best sounding bands he has heard since he came to Hyannis. "They have progressed well in their technical ability and in musicianship."

In a small community, many activities and opportunities would be unavailable if it weren't for the support provided by the community. The same is true for school. Our students wish to thank area business people for their support of the annual. The annual staff is able to not only publish a great annual, but the school is allowed to teach yet another important lesson to students: Meeting and working with the public. "I truly believe that it has been a good experience for my students," stated Marina Garner, annual advisor.
