MORE Than You'd Expect

The 2002-2003 school year was very busy for the Junior class. The year consisted of working in the concessions stands, selling magazines and Avon, and many other fund raisers, to make money for prom. The Juniors worked hard, in and out of the classroom, and the year proved to be very prolific.

In September, the class of 2006 went on a field trip to western Nebraska. First on their agenda was Fort Robinson near Crawford. There they looked at the museum, stockade, and the stables. They even got to take a jeep ride to the buttes. After a short meal they went to the Hudson-Meng Bison dig near Crawford. They talked to the scientists and looked around there. The last stop was the Sandoz High Plains Heritage center in Chadron. They visited there because they just read "Those were the Sioux" by Sandoz.

Although they are the smallest class at Hyannis Junior-Senior High School, they are not lacking in spirit. This group of young people make their presence known in the hallways and in the classrooms. They enjoy visiting with their friends at lunch and even during classtime. An eager group, they are often at school early to make sure they are prepared for the day.

The Longhorn volleyball team had a rebuilding season this year. With a new coach and only one returning starter they had a long way to go. Although they ended the season with a 4-15 record, they grew significantly as a team. Coach Chatelain said, "The 2002 volleyball season was a transition year. Overall, I, as well as the players, am very grateful for all the support received from the community." By the end of the season, the team was well accustomed to their new coach and each other and all are looking forward to another great season next year.

We started off the year with three of us and in the end through the sickness (Brett) and injury (Trevor) there was just me. I ended the season with a few more losses than I had wins but it was still a good season. I learned a lot from Mr. Miller, he was able to put up with my short temper and really understood the way that I had to be coached and it worked out great.

There were seven cheerleaders showing great support for our teams this year. The JV team was made up of Krystal Craig, Amanda Thomas, and Betsey Wright. They cheered at the only JV football game and JV basketball games.

The Varsity team of Kristina Craig, Hope Dubs, Tina Dubs, and Marcee Keslar cheered at football, basketball, and volleyball games and wrestling tournaments.

The girls kept busy with various fund-raisers and hosted a local cheerleading camp.

This year the Hyannis FFA Chapter went to Louisville Kentucky. On the way down they stopped on St. Louis and went through the Gateway Arch. While in Louisville they attended the First General Session and visited Churchill Downs.

This year the FFA sponsored the Sweetheart dance. Marde Monahan was crowned Queen and Justin Seidler was crowned King.

Also this year the FFA attended the State FFA convention in Lincoln. While there they competed in two contests, Junior Livestock Judging and Livestock management. They also attended two Leadership Conferences and two General Sessions. The Chapter had a good time and can't wait to go again next year.

A Time To Discover

BAND

The 2002-2003 Hyannis High band overcame adversity this year with such a small group. They were led by Stacy McAbee in their quest for Denver for a trip in May, paid for by their fundraising at the athletic games and so-forth.

The Group Includes:

middle row: Susan Liptrap, Tina Dubs, Tawn Applegarth, Brenna Rothwell, Kristina Craig, Erin Dyer, Betsy Wright

The choir had an exciting year working toward the band and choir trip to Denver where the choir will perform their pieces from conference and districts. The students sold pizza, cookie dough, and bread in order to raise money for the trip. They worked countless concession stands also. They performed at the Veterans Day assembly, Christmas concert, Sandhills Conference music contest in Arthur, District music contest in Chadron, and Spring Concert.

Kristina Craig, Tehl Keslar, Krystal Craig, Jackie Gregory, Amanda Sheets, Erin Dyer, and Josh Hebbert all attended different Festival and Honor Choirs and Bands at Kearney and Chadron in the early part of 2003. Tehl also attended Doane's Honor Choir.

The 2002-2003 school year has been a busy one for the members of Honor Society. New members inducted in November were Seniors Taryn Groves and Amanda Sheets, and Juniors Josh Keller and Jacklyn Stevens. The group has worked at the Grant County Museum for the duration of the year and took part in many fundraising activities including selling chocolate and flower bulbs. The money received from the sales will go towards scholarships for the graduating members of Honor Society.

State Qualifiers!

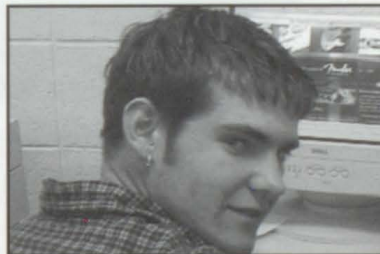

The Academic Decathlon team continued working hard this year with practices on Tuesday and Thursday. A new form of practice was started from an idea of Jackie's. "Quiznopoly" was played in teams on a huge monopoly board. They competed well at the Alliance meet, with each participant placing. This earned them the chance to go to state. They did remarkably well, especially since this was their first state competition.

Back to Front L - R: Amanda Sheets (Treasurer), Joslyn Dyer (Secretary), Taryn Groves, and Tessa Wilson, Marvin Wright (Vice President), Josh Keller, Tebl Keslar (President), Thomas Ferguson, Jake Hebbert, and Coy Sheets, Jason Anderson, Megan Gregory, Hobie Hayward, Daniel Smith, Abbey Altmaier, Tarry Stevens, Krystal Craig, and Marcee Keslar

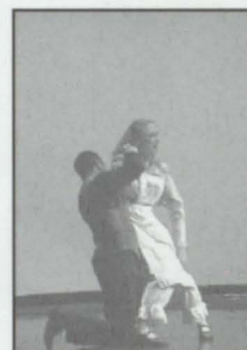

Student Council kept busy throughout the year, starting with homecoming. The members put a lot of thought into the dressup days and other activities concerning this event. They also held many fund-raisers including selling baked goods before school, raffles, and a money pick-up during the half-time of a boys basketball game. For the first year, some of this money will be put toward a fund to donate to the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

One Act

"Alice in Wonderland"

Back to Front L - R: Brett Burgess, Tom Ferguson, Rory DeGanahl, Tim Billingsly, and Tehl Keslar Jackie Gregory, Joslyn Dyer, Marde Monahan, Amanda Sheets, Erin Dyer, and Amber Dubs Megan DeGanahl, Josh Hebbert, Tessa Wilson, Tee Applegarth, Courtney Finney, and Tawn Applegarth Kim Seidler and Jaycee Kistler

This year the One Act team performed "Alice in Wonderland." The team put in a lot of hard work trying to get ready because many of the cast members played a number of different characters. At Sandhills Conference, which was held at Hyannis, the team placed second and Jackie Gregory and Tehl Keslar received awards for their outstanding acting. Tessa Wilson, Josh Hebbert, and Amanda Sheets also earned honorable mention acting awards. Districts was held in Ogallala where Tehl Keslar, Josh Hebbert, and Jackie Gregory received recognition as outstanding performers.

Spring Play

"Southern Fried Murder"

Meet The Cast & Crew

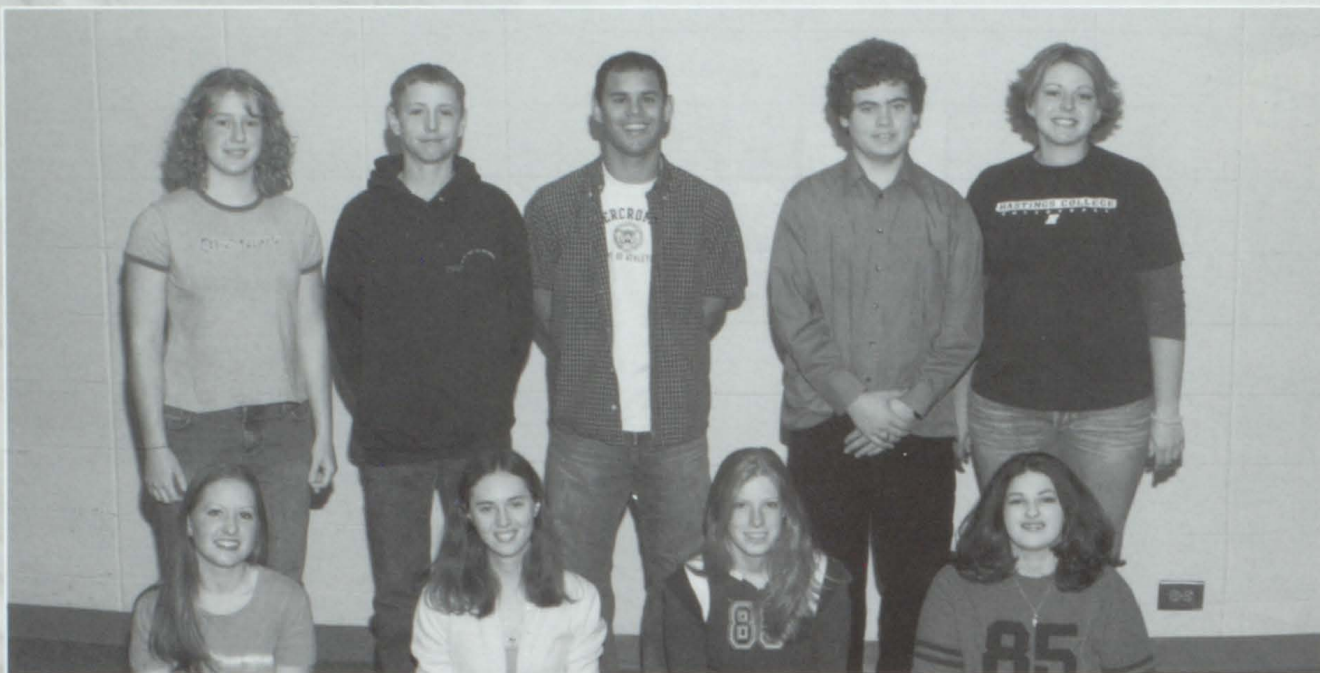

Back to Front L-R: Rory DeGanahl (Ben Parker), Marvin Wright (Crew), Josh Hebbert (Magnolia Davis Capote/Lou Capote), and Erin Dyer (A.J. Watkins), Marde Monahan (Magnolia Woods), Joslyn Dyer (Stump Slatterly), Tee Applegarth (Nolie Frost), and Amanda Sheets (Maggie St. Lawrence), Tehl Keslar (Will Slatterly)

The cast worked hard trying to get their production of "Southern Fried Murder" ready to perform. They held their home performances on May 5th and 6th, at 7:30 P.M. in the lecture hall. When the members of the audience came in, the cast circulated among them and introduced themselves in various ways. There was also a special guest starring role in which a member of the audience was asked before the show if they would play the part of Terry the hotel manager. For the first night Pastor Lloyd Lenz was asked to play the role, and Walt Dyer participated the following night. The play was an excellent comedy that brought some enlightenment to everyone's evening.
